Two More Cases Disposed of in Supreme Court

No Cause of Action in Suit Brought By Curleys—Verdict of $1,050 For Rebecca Goldstein—Action For Conversion Taken Up.

The March term of supreme court moved ahead in a lively fashion on Wednesday when Judge Staley disposed of several cases. Following the dismissal of two suits in the morning the action brought by Daniel A. Curley and Morris Curley of Saugerties against Christopher C. Van Valkenburg, for damage to the Curley truck caused by the Autocar truck driven by defendant, was taken up and tried. The jury after being out a few minutes brought in a verdict of no cause of action.

The Curleys claimed that their truck had been run into from the rear by the Autocar on May 27, 1926, on the Quarryville-Saugerties road and damaged to the extent of $500. They alleged that defendant drove his car into the rear of their car in attempting to pass where there was not sufficient room. Defendant contended that after passing a horse and wagon he sounded a warning and started to pass the Curley truck. All were traveling in an easterly direction. As he came up to the Curley truck he pulled to the left to pass and when abreast the driver of the Curley truck pulled over past the center line of the road and to the left causing the accident. Defendant claims he was on the left shoulder of the road when the cars came to a stop. He alleged that the driver of the Curley truck was playing with a dog in the cab of the truck and did not observe where he was driving his car. Defendant testified that the driver of the truck admitted after the accident that he had been playing with the dog and did not know where he was going at the time of the accident.

Grant M. Brinnier appeared for the plaintiff and Lester Smith for the defendant.

Verdict of $1,050.

In the action brought by Rebecca Goldstein of Ellenville against Isaac Wagner to collect moneys under a lease, an inquest was taken and judgment given plaintiff for $1,050. Mrs. Goldstein owns a bakery in Ellenville located at 61 Canal street. In March, 1926, the bakery property was leased by plaintiff to defendant for a two year period.

The agreed rent was to amount to $1,250 a year to be paid in agreed amounts each month. The defendant, who made no defense, moved in and took possession in March paying $100 rent. In April or May he moved out at night for parts unknown to the plaintiff and has not paid any rent since. After that Mrs. Goldstein tried to rent the place and did so for several short periods. In the two years in which the lease was in effect she received $720 from various persons for short periods of occupancy. Her action was to recover the amount due on the lease to Wagner, less the amounts which she received for rent during the period in which the lease was in effect. Judge Staley after hearing the evidence directed a verdict in the sum of $1,050 for plaintiff. LeRoy Lounsberry for plaintiff.

Action for Conversion.

Next No. 253, Millie Gullob against Bruno Matelski and Mary Matelski, an action for conversion, was taken up for trial. This action brought by Mrs. Gullob of this city against the Matelski family is to recover damages for certain personal property which she alleges was sold to her by the Matelski family at the time she bought their house at 19 West Pierpont street and which she alleged was moved from the house after she had bought it and which she never did get.

TRUCKLOAD OF DOCUMENTS FOR PUBLIC UTILITY PROBE

Washington, March 8 (AP).—A truckload of documents was dumped into the record today when the Federal Trade Commission began its investigation of the public utility power companies under the Walsh Senate resolution.

Eight representatives of the National Electric Light Association and the American Gas Association were sworn as witnesses before Commissioner Edgar A. McCulloch.

Paul S. Clapp of New York, managing director of the National Electric Light Association, testified that although only about 50 per cent of the electric power companies in the country are members of his association, the members produce more than 90 per cent of the kilowatt hours.

Questioned by Robert E. Healy, chief counsel for the commission, Clapp told of the founding of the organization in 1885 and submitted scores of documents on the organizations, its personnel, scope of activities, its functions and the holding companies.

GIRL FELL FROM WAGON UNDER WHEEL WEDNESDAY.

Andrew Schackel of North street reported to the police department Wednesday that while driving a horse and wagon through North street that morning a young girl named Mary Turck, who resides on that street and who was swinging on the step of the wagon, stepped off and fell under the rear wheel, which passed over her. The girl, however, was not seriously hurt.

"Red" Agitator Speaks to Rotary

Not So Red as He at First Seemed, Mr. O'Brien Presented the Right and the Wrong Side of Industrial and Social Questions.

The Kingston Rotary Club and its guests were startled at the luncheon at The Governor Clinton on Wednesday by the delivery of one of the most flaming Socialistic speeches ever heard in the city, in which various local industries were mentioned by the speaker in such a way that different ones in the audience made audible protest, which changed suddenly to astonished silence as the speaker suddenly whipped a false wig from his head and stood revealed as J. Robert O'Brien of New York city, who then proceeded to deliver a patriotic address calling upon the citizens of Kingston to combat in every way the insidious propaganda of the Socialist which, he said, was creeping into our schools, colleges and churches.

It was through the courtesy of S. Rankin Drew Post, No. 340, American Legion, which is working with the Constitutional Educational League, that the Rotary Club program committee was enabled to present the rather unusual program that was carried out at the luncheon. Members of Kingston Post, No. 150, American Legion, Kingston Kiwanis Club and friends of the Rotarians were present at the luncheon.

It was represented by the presiding officer that a man by the name of Forrest had been arrested by the local police department for distributing Red literature about the city. The man claimed to be a lecturer and at the request of the committee he was brought to the hotel in charge of Officer Soper, and asked to deliver an address.

For fifteen minutes "Forrest" spoke, delivering the usual speech of the soap box orator on a street corner. He did not hesitate to bring local utility companies and various other local industries into the picture by name and his remarks were of such a nature that protests were heard from different ones in the audience. It was then that "Forrest" removed his false wig, red necktie and spectacles and stood revealed as Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. O'Brien's excellent presentation of both sides of his subject was so dramatic that the Rotary Club and its guests voted it one of the most interesting addresses of its kind delivered in Kingston. Men connected with other organizations who were present were so impressed with the talk that a return engagement may bring Mr. O'Brien back to Kingston at an early date.

Two Dry Law Cases Dismissed

Two twice adjourned cases came before U. S. Commissioner Arthur C. Connelly at his office in the Cordts building, Wall street, Wednesday afternoon. Both were for violation of Federal law. William Sutherland had been arrested for having a still at New Paltz which was not in operation when found on a farm property. Sutherland was represented by Lloyd R. LeFever and defendant was ready to fight the charge, it being alleged he had not been on the farm in months and had no knowledge the still was there. As no witnesses nor any of the Federal men appeared the complaint was dismissed.

Dismissal was also directed in the matter of selling liquor charged against Robert McGraw of Chatham, Columbia county. He was represented by George F. Kaufman and was prepared to contest the matter.

POSTPONE TRIAL OF THREE AMERICAN WOMEN.

Broussa, Turkey, March 8 (AP).—Trial of three American women on charges of disseminating religious propaganda in violation of the rules of the ministry of education, has been postponed until April 2.

The decision of the court to delay the trial in order to call additional witnesses among students of the American school scattered throughout Anatolia, is felt to indicate that the case is being followed seriously. Broussa is stronghold of the Moslem faith and the trial involving the historic battle between cross and crescent is being watched keenly.

The women on trial are Miss Edith Sanderson, Miss Lucille Day and Miss Jennie Jilson.

PENNSYLVANIA PASSENGER TRAFFIC AGENT, DIES

Jersey City, N. J., March 8 (AP).—Harry H. Baker, 63, special agent of the passenger traffic department of the Pennsylvania railroad, died suddenly of heart disease today at his home here.

For several years Baker was superintendent of the Pennsylvania dining car system.

SIX DOGS WERE CAUGHT HERE BY DOG CATCHERS.

The official dog catchers rounded up six more dogs found roaming the streets unmuzzled on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the dogs were placed in the pound at Forsyth Park. Two dogs that were in the pound were redeemed by the owners on Wednesday.

Blames Governor For Dropping Case

Otis Declares Governor Smith Knew Charges Were Being Used as Smoke Screen to Cover up Charges Made by Theodore Roosevelt.

Albany, N. Y., March 8 (AP).—The case of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, is closed insofar as the state government and the Albany county grand jury are concerned, but to at least four persons actively concerned in the investigation of her conduct of the 1925 census there remained today material for bitter debate.

Alexander Otis, counsel for Mrs. Knapp during the inquiry, stepped back into the case by announcing at Buffalo last night that he held Governor Smith responsible for Mrs. Knapp's "woes and present predicament". He charged that the Governor "knew that the charges made by Dr. Walter Laidlaw (against Mrs. Knapp) were being used by his friends as a smoke screen to cover up charges made by Theodore Roosevelt at the last Republican state convention."

Colonel Roosevelt asserted at that time that due to a Democratic municipal administration and "Tammany politics" in Albany, "the red light district was creeping up to the very steps of the Capitol."

Mr. Otis also declared that the Governor knew, or should have known, that Mrs. Knapp had employed his military secretary in the census bureau. Otis asserted that Attorney General Albert Ottinger told him that he had recommended, as Moreland act commissioners, Frank H. Hiscock, former chief justice of the court of appeals; Arthur E. Sutherland, Rochester attorney; Martin Conboy, New York attorney active in Democratic affairs, and Randall J. Le Boeuf.

Passing over these very prominent men, the Governor named Le Boeuf, who spent $26,000 to find out nothing not set forth in the Laidlaw charges", Otis said.

The report of District Attorney Charles J. Herrick of Albany county that he found insufficient grounds for presenting the Knapp case to the grand jury brought an intimation from the Moreland act commissioner that he would have some comment on Mr. Herrick's action. It was at the recommendation of Le Boeuf that Governor Smith ordered the results of the commissioner's investigation presented to the district attorney for possible grand jury action.

Mr. Le Boeuf was declared by those close to him to have expressed resentment over Herrick's report to the Governor that he was "unable to find any evidence to sustain any of the charges of crime set forth in the report submitted by your commissioner."

An argument developed between Mr. Herrick and Attorney General Ottinger as to whether the attorney general had "concurred" in the district attorney's report to the Governor. Mr. Ottinger's explanation was that he "did not pass upon the case" and that he was not situated to disagree with Mr. Herrick's disposition of the case because the matter was beyond his jurisdiction. He specifically denied that he had "concurred", as stated by the district attorney.

ANTI-SALOON IS AGAINST ANY "WET" ASPIRANTS

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 8 (AP).—On record as opposed unequivocally to the candidacy of any aspirant to public office whose record, as well as campaign promises, is not in sympathy with the dry cause, the southeastern states prohibition convention of the Anti-Saloon League had completed its labors here today.

The convention drew no party distinctions in resolutions adopted at the closing session last night which called upon the nation's prohibition followers to unite to defeat any wet candidate for the presidential nomination.

Party leaders, the pronouncement warned, would be held responsible if moral and religious issues were not properly represented before the respective national political conventions. It urged the southern delegates to these conventions not only to throw their influence toward the defeat of any potential wet candidate but to seek the nomination of a man who unquestionably favors the eighteenth amendment and its enforcement.

DEMOCRATIC FINANCES OUT OF DEFICIT COLUMN

Washington, March 8 (AP).—Democratic party finances were out of the deficit column for the first time since the presidential campaign of 1924, and approximately $250,000 was in sight with which to begin initial combat with the Republicans for honors in the next November elections.

Announcement to this effect by the Democratic national committee coincided with word that Secretary Hoover contemplated making a decision today whether he would enter the Indiana primaries against Senator Watson, and with a nationwide call by the southeastern convention of the Anti-Saloon League for defeat of all candidates who oppose or remain silent on dry law enforcement.

Elizabeth Was Jailed.

Elizabeth Bloodsaw, a negress, arrested for public intoxication, was jailed for five days by Judge Shufeldt in police court on Wednesday.

New Water Rates In Effect Here April 1

The water board met this afternoon and adopted a new schedule of water rates in the city, effective April 1.

The most important change is for first faucets which are increased from $4 per year to $6. The rates for additional faucets are increased from $1.50 to $2.00. The present rates on first baths of $4 has been increased to $5. Toilets from $3 to $4. Schools, factories, hotels and special rates are increased 25 per cent. The minimum meter rate has been increased from $3.50 to $5.00.

Public Reaction Puzzles Smith

Albany, N. Y., Mar. 8 (AP).—Governor Smith is puzzled over public reaction to the dropping of the proposed criminal action against former Secretary of State Florence E. S. Knapp by District Attorney Charles J. Herirck of Abany county, it was indicated at the executive chamber today.

Until today the Governor felt that the case had passed out of his hands entirely, and that the final chapter had been written when the district attorney declined to prosecute Mrs. Knapp on the grounds that he did not believe sufficient evidence existed upon which to obtain a conviction.

With a flood of adverse newspaper editorial comment, however, and the publication of a statement from Alexander Otis, Mrs. Knapp's former counsel, charging that the executive had directed Herrick's action as a "smoke screen" to cover up charges made by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at the last Republican convention, the Governor felt that further action might be necessary. What course this action should take, or how the case should be handled, he had not decided.

"Anybody with an ounce of common sense should know there is nothing to Otis's "smoke screen charge," he declared.

ROWLAND LEAVES WESTERN UNION; TO SELL INSURANCE

The Oneonta Star of Wednesday says: W. Irving Rowland, for the past five years associated with the Western Union company in its Oneonta office, previously engaged as a teleghapher with the D. & H. company here, has resigned his position with the former company and will engage in the life insurance business. Mr. Rowland is well known throughout this vicinity and will have the best wishes and congratulations of many friends.

Mr. Rowland has become associated with Herbert Bernard of Schenevus, district manager for the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York, and will start his new work at once. He has been enjoying a short rest before taking up the duties.

Mr. Rowland is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Rowland of Spring street, this city.

GLOTH'S DIVORCED WIFE CHARGED WITH SHOOTING HIM

Washington, March 8 (AP).—William C. Gloth, commonwealth's attorney for Arlington county, Virginia, and former noted football player at the University of Virginia, was in a serious condition at a local hospital today with a bullet wound in the chest.

Mrs. Marjorie Gloth, his divorced wife, was out on $10,000 bond awaiting a hearing in the Arlington county police court.

Police say she shot Gloth, from whom she obtained a limited divorce several years ago, last night as he stood talking to Mrs. Delia Snyder, her mother, on the porch of the former wife's home in nearby Clarendon, Va., and within an hour after he had returned from Richmond on business.

MARBLETOWN MAN CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Jesse Banks of Marbletown is in the Ulster county jail awaiting a hearing before Judge Oscar Church on Friday at High Falls on a charge of assault. It is alleged that Banks took exception to a man's action, who to protect himself from being bitten by two dogs, owned by Banks, kicked one and hit the other with a large stone. The alleged assault is the aiming of a shot gun at the complaining witness and threatening to blow his head off; also using vile language with threats.

SAYS HINCHCLIFFE HAS NO INTENTION OF FLYING HERE

London, March 8 (AP).—Mrs. Walter G. R. Hinchcliffe today said that her husband has not intention of flying to the United States, at least until he has made a trip to India.

She told the Associated Press that Captain Hinchcliffe with a friend, Captain Gordon Sinclair, reserve air force pilot, is at Cranwell getting an American Stinson plane in trim for a flight to India when weather conditions are favorable. She said he would not take off this week.

Adds Another Store.

The New York Sample Shop has added to its chain of stores, a new one at Perth Amboy, N. J.

Andy Dykman Gets Life Sentence

St. Clairsville, Ohio, March 8 (AP).—Andy Dyken, 15-year old slayer of his mother, pleaded guilty to second degree murder today and was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor in the Ohio penitentiary.

Dyken shot his mother to death last December 6 as she stood in the doorway of their farm home, and when his father, Nick Dyken, and a farmhand attempted to wrest the shotgun from him, shot them.

Dyken appeared pleased with the outcome. He said he was looking forward to the automobile ride from St. Clairsville to Columbus, and told newspapermen all he wanted was "good clothes and plenty of cigarettes."

Dyken's father, still suffering from the effects of the two wounds, was in the court room. Dyken looked at him and remarked: "Well, I suppose the old man's satisfied now."

The shooting followed a reprimand administered Dyken by his parents for not attending school. In court Dyken testified that his father had abused him and asserted he did not intend to shoot his mother. He said that in the dusk he thought it was his father who came to the door.

87th BIRTHDAY OF OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

Washington, March 8 (AP).—Oliver Wendell Holmes, veteran associate justice of the Supreme court, today celebrated his 87th birthday out of his familiar harness, the flowing robe.

For the last ten days he has been confined to his home, unable because of a cold to participate in the proceedings of the court at which he has been a member for more than 25 years.

Although in years one of the oldest men ever to wear the robes of his high office, he has not approached the length of service of John Marshall, who served 34 years, nor several others who sat on the highest tribunal almost as long as Marshall.

Advancing age has taken some of the military bearing away from the Massachuses jurist and son of the great New England poet, but it has not dimmed the brilliancy of his great mind, and he remains one of the hardest workers on the bench.

BRITISH PREPARE FOR WAR IN ARABIA

London, March 8 (AP).—British preparations for war in Arabia continued apace today. Men, armored cars, tanks and airplanes were being mobilized along the border of Transjordania to turn back any attack by Wahabi tribesmen under Ibn Saud.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Jaffa told of preparations being made by British authorities in Palestine.

The frontier force was being mobilized. All officers and men were recalled from leave. An armored car company left Ramleih, Palestine for Amman, Palestine, yesterday. Several airplanes passed over Jaffa Tuesday enroute from Egypt to Amman.

A Jewish telegraphic agency dispatch from Jerusalem said twenty-two airplanes and seven tanks were sent to the Transjordania frontier.

WEST SHORE RAILROAD DENIES ACCIDENT STORY

William D. Delaplane, station master of the West Shore railroad, informed The Freeman today that the story regarding the narrow escape of two men at West Camp on Monday was without foundation. The story stated that while removing the body of Clarence Seubert from a West Shore train at West Camp on Monday, George H. Smith of the Seamon Brothers Company, and Albert Whitaker, who was assisting him, narrowly escaped injury when a baggage truck they placed alongside the train to place the body on was hit by a freight train.

PRINCESS HISA DIES. MOVIE THEATRES CLOSE.

Tokyo, Mar. 8 (AP).—As a sign of respect for the grief of the royal family over the death of the six-months-old Princess Hisa, all motion picture theatres in Tokyo voluntarily closed today.

The princess will be interred at Toshimagaoka, on the outskirts of Tokyo, where many other members of the imperial family are buried.

Since the child was under seven years of age there will be no public mourning but on the day of the funeral the broadcasting of music will be suspended and the motion picture theatres again closed.

Lewis Submits Wage Agreement

Declaring It Is Contract That Was Violated, Abrogated and Trampled Upon By the Pittsburgh Coal Company and Others.

Washington, Mar. 8 (AP).—Continuing his indictment of the bituminous coal industry, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, today again attributed conditions in the coal fields to a conspiracy among the railroads to depress miners' wages. Testifying before the Senate interstate commerce committee, he said, "the wails and lamentations that rise from the women and children of the fields seem to have no effect on the leaders who direct the policy of the railroads."

Lewis submitted to Chairman Watson, for the record, an original copy of the Jacksonville wage agreement between miners and operators, saying:

"This is the contract which was violated, abrogated and trampled upon by the Pittsburgh Coal Company and others in that region."

The union leader also entered statistics of declines in coal prices paid by railroad, which he said was a result of the "railroads' campaign to depress wages at will."

"The story of their success is written in the degradation in the coal fields of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia," he declared.

Answering Senator Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, the miners executive said he understood that the Pittsburgh Coal Company was a "Mellon concern." He mentioned Secretary Mellon as a "former director" of the company and said that he understood interests were also held by R. B. Mellon, the Mellon National Bank and the Union Trust Company, the latter "Mellon concerns."

Lewis told Senator Gooding, Republican, Idaho, that the methods of mining in America were wasteful and constitute a great handicap to the industry.

Believe Robbery An Inside Job

Chicago, Mar. 8 (AP).—Two robbers bound watchman of the Borin Manufacturing Company early today and looted safes of $715,000 in negotiable securities and jewelry.

They also took patent formulas, contracts and a list of customers of the company, manufacturers of picture frames and mirrors, which President Nathan Borin said were worth $300,000.

The loot included $500,000 in negotiable stock of the company, $100,000 in stock of each of two subsidiaries firms, the Master Art Corporation and the Limits Industrial Corporation; $8,000 in stocks and bonds owned by Borin, and $7,000 worth of jewelry belonging to Mrs. Borin.

The president of the company, who owned approximately 90 per cent of the missing stock, said he believed it was an "inside job."

Gaining entrance through a coal chute, the robbers, one of whom was masked, overpowered the engineer and the watchman. Both were bound and guarded by one man, while the other obtained tools from the engineroom and broke open two safes in the office.

PATTEN DISPOSED OF $25,000 CONTINENTAL BONDS

Washington, Mar. 8 (AP).—James A. Patten, Chicago grain commission merchant, revealed today to the Senate Teapot Dome committee that he disposed of $25,000 of the Continental Trading Company bonds which were turned over to the Republican National Committee in 1923 by Harry F. Sinclair.

These bonds were a part of the $69,000 which Will H. Hays, former chairman of the Republican National Committee, forwarded to the late Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee during and after the 1920 presidential campaign.

Patten said that on December 5, 1925, Upham called on him and told him that there was a large deficit coming over from the 1920 campaign "and that a lot of United States bonds had been put up as collateral to secure loans of the national committee."

"He wanted me to put up $25,000 and sell the amount in bonds," Patten said. "I was indignant and mad at the size of the deficit, I'm afraid I used bad language."

"That will be overlooked here," said Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana.

"Can I repeat the language?" Patten asked as the crowd laughed.

"I saw the necessity for paying off the deficit," he continued. "I went to my secretary and had him send a check. I was very mad. I hate to give up money to pay for a dead horse." I wondered why Upham gave the bonds to me instead of selling them in New York, the best market in the world."

Proposed Merger Called Off.

Youngstown, O., March 8 (AP).—The proposed merger of Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company and Inland Steel Company has been called off, it was announced here today by James A. Campbell, president of sheet and tube. The parties to the merger had been unable to agree, he said.

Lindbergh Off Again.

Washington, Mar. 8 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh took off from Bolling Field at noon today for an unannounced destination.

Stove Problem Is Before Jury

Must Determine Which Stove Mateiski Sold to Millie Gullob and If They Left the Stove Sold—Truckman Says He Didn't Take Kitchen Stove.

Which stove did Bruno Mateiski and his wife sell to Millie Gullob and did they leave the stove sold and a quantity of other household furnishings in the premises at the time they moved away from the West Pierpont street house after they had sold it to Mrs. Gullob? Those problems must be determined by the jury which heard the evidence in an action brought in supreme court by Mrs. Gullob to recover the property or its value.

The case was concluded at noon and sent to the jury.

Plaintiff claims she bought for $10 certain stoves, coal and gas, and certain sarpets and linoleum when she bought the house. She testified she was to pay $10 for the stuff which she said was worth about $200. When she moved in the house she charges the goods had been moved out. She seeks to recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Mateiski deny that they took the stuff away and allege that when they vacated the premises the stuff was still in the house. They also swore witnesses who testified that the carpets alleged to have been missing were in the house in August following the transfer in April. Contrary to Mrs. Gullob the claim of the defendants is that the stuff was not worth over $10. They allege that the kitchen range sold to Mrs. Gullob was an old one worth from 50 cents to $1.50 and that it was not the good one which they used. The gas stove which was in the basement kitchen they testify was broken and could not be used.

Did Not Take Stove.

Testimony of the truckman who moved the family was that he did not take the kitchen stove and that he saw it in the house the day he moved the family away. It was left there. Other witnesses testified that carpet on the stairs was in the house in August and was the same carpet which the Matelski family had on Hasbrouck avenue years before. Another witness testified the stove and oilcloth was in the house when Mrs. Gullob moved there.

Mrs. Matelski said she had been charged with leaving the wrong stove and she denied it. She said she had left the old stove which she had agreed to leave. She said she had a good combination gas and coal stove which she had taken along, but it was not the one she had sold to Mrs. Gullob.

Wednesday afternoon Attorney Chris J. Flanagan, who drew up the papers of the sale, testified he had had a conversation with both Mr. and Mrs. Matelski in which they talked of the trouble over the furniture which was to have been left. On the stand Mr. Matelski denied ever having had a talk about the furniture to Mr. Flanagan. Mrs. Decker and her daughter, Mrs. McGurn, testified they had seen the carpet on the stairs long after Mrs. Gullob had moved it. It was also testified that the key to the premises had been delivered to Abram Handler on the day the last load of furniture was taken out of the house by the Matelski family. They claim they never were in the house after that. Mr. Handler denied the key had been left with him by Mr. Matelski.

It was testified that Mrs. Gullob had been upstairs to the apartment of a tenant on the top floor and on the way down Mrs. Decker and her daughter commented on the Matelski carpet being on the stairs. Mrs. Decker said Mrs. Gullob said she had bought the carpet and other furniture when she bought the house from Mr. and Mrs. Matelski. Called in rebuttal Mrs. Gullob said she never had been up to the top floor apartment and had never had such a conversation.

Thomas F. Coughlin and J. Edward Conway appeared for the plaintiff and Francis C. Merritt for the defendants.

HICKMAN'S MOVE FOR LIFE SENTENCE REJECTED

Los Angeles, March 8 (AP).—With his offer to plead guilty to the murder of Druggist C. Ivy Toms, in exchange for a life sentence, rejected, only the final round of attorneys' arguments today intervened before the fate of William Edward Hickman for the second time rests in a jury's hands.

The gesture for a life sentence was made yesterday after the Hickman defense in the trial of the youth and his accomplice, Welby Hunt, had rested. Judge Elliott Craig promptly ruled he could not accept such a change of plea with conditions of sentence attached.

Hickman's attorneys refused to withdraw the reservation and the judge then denied the request.

Hickman already is under sentence to the gallows for the slaying of 12-year-old Marian Parker. Hunt is too young to be sentenced to death in this state.

Improvements at City Hotel.

The kitchen of the City Hotel on Main street is being painted a white enamel and modern improvements are being installed by E. J. Rarey and D. H. Hurley, who took over the hotel rooms and restaurant a few months ago having purchased the interest of C. Fred Meyers in the hostelry and are meeting with success.

WORLD PRAYS IN CURIOUS WAYS

Strange Customs Include Praying Wheel of Buddhists and Siam Rockets.

Washington.—Occasional reports of the prayer books of Western churches is a reminder to the prosaic rather of curious prayer customs that prevail in certain other parts of the world," according to a bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic society.

"Central Asia and Tibet have been called the 'Land of Mechanical Prayers.' Wherever the natives congregate, there is a constant murmuring 'Om Mani Padme Hum (O Jewel in the Lotus) while numerous contrivances bearing the same prayer are in use, supplementing the vocal petitions.

Wind and Water Power.

"The praying wheel has long been a favorite apparatus among Buddhists of these regions. In the villages and along the highways, the faithful carry the hand model of the wheel consisting of a revolving cylinder with a malletlike handle. As the holder walks or rides he spins the cylinder upon which the prayer is written hundreds of times. Each revolution of each prayer is an individual prayer. In this way thousands of prayers can be said in a minute.

"The larger wheels, some of which are six feet high and from ten to twelve feet in circumference, are placed under shelters along trails to sacred places, and in the temples. When a pilgrim passes the wheel he gives it a vigorous spin.

"There are lazy Buddhists as well as lazy members of other religious sects. Sometimes the owner of a plot of ground where there is a stream will set up a water-propelled prayer wheel. The pole which [illegible] wheel or cylinder is attached to [illegible] through a hole in a board which [illegible] to the banks. Moslems Use Prayer Brick.

"The Moslems are more conservative than their Buddhist neighbors. Prayer rugs, some of which are artistically designed and colored, are important prayer accessories. Wherever the Moslem may be in the shop, on the street, or [illegible] time he spreads out his carpet, removes his shoes and, facing Mecca, goes through the formula of Moslem prayer postures. First he holds both hands before his face with palms upward, then bending at the hips he places his hands on his thighs. His next move is to kneel without moving his hands and from this kneeling posture he leans forward, touching the palms of his hands and his forehead to the ground.

"Some sects of the Moslems use prayer bricks as a part of their prayer paraphernalia. They are cakes of baked clay from Mecca, Medina or some other sacred place. They are placed so that the head of the prayer [illegible] will touch them instead of the ground. MOMBACCUS CENTER.

Mombaccus Center, March 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Elting Churchwell made a business trip to Kerhonkson Saturday evening last.

Frank Lounsbury called on Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herring on Sunday. Mr. Lounsbury has not been well but glad to say is much improved in health.

Warren Terwilliger met with a serious accident lately by cutting his hand in a heading machine.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Eugene Donigan of Amsterdam on February 13. She was buried February 16 at Amsterdam. Mrs. Donigan was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Quick of Leibhardt and sister of Mrs. Frank Lounsbury of this place. Besides her husband she leaves four sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss.

All are glad to hear that Charles White is improving and able to be out again.

Ice Consumption Large

Each year in the United States approximately 1,000 pounds of ice for each person in the country—man, woman and child—are used. There is in constant use during the year an average of seven cubic feet of cold storage space for every person in the country.

Mother Kills Her Two Babies

Pittsburgh, March 8 (AP)—A mother killed her two babies here today and then made an unsuccessful attempt on her own life.

According to the police, the mother, Mrs. Catherine Ward, 25, stabbed Billy, aged three years, and then placed him in a bathtub partly filled with water, after which she strangled Dorothy May, aged eight months, with a rag. Then Mrs. Ward cut her wrists with a razor blade.

At the hospital doctors discovered that Mrs. Warden had swallowed a powerful poison. Her condition was critical, they said.

A note written by Mrs. Ward said: "The kiddies are in the bathroom, they are better off."

Neighbors said the woman had been ill.

ENJOYABLE MEETING OF ROSENDALE GRANGE

Rosendale Grange, No. 1501, P. of H., held one of its pleasant meetings on February 27, in All Saints' Parish Hall, when a large number of members were present. The meeting was called to order by Worthy Master C. I. LeFever, Jr. Secretary Wilma Gresser read reports. Arthur Merrihew, treasurer, reported on finances. Committees reported on new names, presented for membership. Plans were suggested for future work. After hearty singing with Mrs. C. I. LeFever at the piano, the meeting was passed over to Worthy Lecturer Mrs. Arthur Merrihew. It being Poultrymen's Night, an excellent paper was read by Worthy Overseer Eno Spindler, on "The Care and Raising of Young Chicks for Profit." Special rations, close confinement, heavily fed, especially milk fed in which method sour milk is used for fattening rations, were touched upon. Suggestions for feeding, care, and cleanliness, presented many points which led to a discussion of a most interesting subject, by Mr. Spindler. A rising vote of thanks was given the speaker. As it was the birthday of Worthy Overseer George Kennedy, a specially beautiful birthday cake was in evidence on the table. There was plenty of good "eats," to which all did justice, furnished by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gresser. Arthur Merrihew presented the Grange with a fine accordion, to the strains of which, manipulated by Floyd Deitz, the evening was brought to a close. It was declared to be one of the best ever spent. Next meeting, Monday, March 12, which all members are urgently requested to attend.

SOUTH RONDOUT.

South Rondout, March 8.—The Ladies' Aid will hold a carpet rag bee and a pot luck supper at the home of Mrs. John Voight on Wednesday afternoon, March 14.

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary will hold a food sale at the home of Miss Anna Cole on Friday afternoon, March 16.

Charles Beck was confined to his home with the grip for a week.

The Misses Harriet Olsen and Anna Maines attended the Y. W. C. A. supper on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Knud Olsen and Mrs. Thomas Morrissey and daughter, Harriet, spent Wednesday afternoon with her daughter, Mrs. Richard Terpening, at Sleightsburgh.

Wendel Scherer is confined to his home on Connelly Heights with the grip.

Mrs. Isaac Hotaling spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Hotaling at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maines of Esopus spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Julia Maines.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Evans and sons, Allen and Charles, of Poughkeepsie spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald.

A large congregation greeted the Rev. George Benton Smith, D. D., last Sunday night in the South Rondout Methodist Church. Dr. Smith preached an interesting sermon on the text, "What Will Thou Have Me to Do?" He asked his hearers to make an individual application of this theme and question, to the end that each one might discover God's purpose concerning the lifework of each one. Mrs. Mildred Morrissey sang with expression the song, "Some Morning".

Pigeon's Flight

Carrier pigeons are known to have flown long distances at rates of speed ranging from 60 to 80 miles an hour, and for many hours together. An official test was made in Washington on September 17, 1901, and a carrier pigeon flew at the rate of about 94 feet a second, or over 64 miles an hour. In the first minute it traveled 1,782 yards, or more than a mile.

LE BOEUF BELIEVES HIS RECOMMENDATIONS SOUND

Albany, N. Y., March 8 (AP).—Randall J. Le Boeuf, Jr., who as Moreland act commissioner, appointed by Governor Smith, investigated Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp's conduct of the 1925 state census, declared in a statement today that "nothing has occurred" to change his opinion of the soundness of his recommendations that the former secretary of state should be prosecuted on four criminal charges.

Mr. Le Boeuf's statement was given out as a result of the decision of District Attorney Charles J. Herrick of Albany county not to present the charges to the grand jury.

"It has been strongly urged upon me that I should comment on Mr. Herrick's action in withholding the evidence of Mrs. Knapp's census activities from the grand jury," he said. "If I could see any good that would come from my making a detailed statement I would unhesitatingly speak my mind. My duties, however, ended with the filing of my report.

"Nothing has occurred to change my opinion as to the soundness of those recommendations. What the district attorney does is a matter between him and the governor.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 8, 1928.

WATER POWER AGAIN.

In 1927, Governor Smith refused to accept Republican proposals to submit the water power development controversy to a non-partisan board of experts for the purpose of definite settlement. Instead he demanded passage of a bill creating a port authority to proceed with his public ownership plans.

In the Assembly campaign of last fall, the Governor demanded that the people return a Democratic Assembly in ratification of his water power plans, and the people replied by increasing the Republican majority of the lower house, and carrying the state against Democratic Assembly candidates by a popular state-wide majority.

Seemingly this would indicate that the voters are not in tune with the semi-socialistic hydro-electric policies of Governor Smith. Nevertheless, Democrats, at the present legislative session, have resurrected their water power authority bill and give notice they will ask its passage.

Thus the agents of Tammany in the legislature again are laid open to the charge of refusing to settle this intricate engineering and economic problem by means of compromise and non-partisan investigation.

THE MOTHER GOOSE MENACE.

Young women of the colleges of McMaster University in Canada the other day debated the resolution "That Mother Goose nursery rhymes should be taught to children." The affirmative set forth the appeal to the imagination held in these time-honored jingles and the "pure, clear, unadulterated delight" they give to children.

The negative, alas, condemned them for questionable morals, crude grammar, total lack of literary and educational merit, the teaching of fear, cruelty and selfishness, not to mention bad manners. It was a shocking indictment, and it apparently convinced the modern-minded students in the audience. A vote taken after the debate stood 65 for the negative and 17 for the affirmative.

There should have been statistics showing how many convicted criminals were brought up on Mother Goose and how many writers of real literary worth were carefully shielded from Mother Goose rhymes. Considerable research along these lines might well be undertaken. The solution of important problems of psychology and sociology may be awaiting just such a complete understanding of the influence of Mother Goose.

VITAMINS.

A sixth food mystery is discovered, and given its appropriate alphabetical name, "Vitamin F." All six are needed for health and normal growth and functioning. The last two are said to be essential to sex. Without them there cannot be maturity and reproduction. It has been proved with animals and is believed to be true with human beings. No one knows what these strange substances are. Strictly speaking, no one has seen them. They seem to defy inspection. They are evident only from their effects. Scientists have found, in a general way, what foodstuffs contain them. They serve to explain many well known facts about health foods.

Fortunately we do not have to solve the mysteries. Practical application is simple. Eat foodstuffs that you knew were healthful before we ever heard of vitamins, and you'll probably get along as well as if you were a scientific Solomon. Milk, eggs and meat, ordinary fresh fruits and vegetables and green salad stuffs will provide all these vitamins and insure growth, health and normal operation of the physiological system.

In cases of extreme need, it may be well to specialize on fresh milk, eggs, orange juice, cod liver oil, lettuce or other foodstuff containing unusual quantities of the particular vitamins needed. Any modern physician can advise patients in such matters. Vitamin F is found especially in beef liver and lettuce.

CONGRESSIONAL RADIO

Radio fans themselves will have to start broadcasting, apparently, if there is to be any improvement in the radio situation. Congress has been stalling and playing politics with a situation that everybody admits is chaotic. The present radio commission started last year to clear the air, but stopped midway and lately has marked time, awaiting congressional action. The commissioners haven't known whether they would be reappointed, or what powers they would have. Their life will end March 15 unless Congress acts before that.

Everybody knows there are too many broadcasting stations, with stations on or near the same waves interfering with each other, and with unfair and unpopular divisions of wave-bands, territory and time. Broadcasting loses quality and value and thereby loses popularity. A great industry is handicapped by inefficiency and confusion, mainly for lack of legislative action to compel the clearing of the air by the silencing of 300 to 400 stations that are pests.

Fans should let Congress know how they feel about it. They don't care much who controls radio, as long as it is controlled definitely, strongly and with a reasonable amount of fairness.

There may be general agreement, however, about this one principle—either the Department of Commerce or a commission with free hands is likely to handle radio better than any legislative body. Congress had better stop mixing radio with politics and give somebody full authority to go ahead and straighten it out.

WHERE MOST DIGESTIVE DISTURBANCES START.

In these days when you are hearing so much about cancer and ulcer of the stomach and intestine, it is very gratifying to learn that of every one hundred people who go to the Mayo clinic thinking they have one of these dread ailments, only five really have cancer or ulcer. Does this mean that all these folks have really just imagined that they had stomach or intestinal trouble?

No! They really have been suffering all right, and in the majority of cases the X ray examination which has been made to diagnose cancer or ulcer, will actually show some disturbance somewhere along the digestive tract.

And that trouble is usually a delay along the route, setting up the disturbance.

Now it has been found that in younger folks this disturbance comes after the noon meal, and grows progressively worse, reaching a sort of climax, and then easing off again, developing new attacks every three days.

This is thought to be due to having the meals too close together.

Before one meal is completely out of the stomach another one is eaten and this of course delays the passage of food, not only out of the stomach, but all the way down the intestinal canal.

Does delay mean anything?

Research men doing X-ray work, will tell you that the greatest number of real ailments occur where the movement is slow or delayed.

For instance the slowest movement in intestines is just at the beginning of the large intestine.

And what do we find there?

The appendix.

In other words there is more appendicitis than any other ailment in the intestine.

And the next slowest movement is at first part of small intestine which is nearest the stomach.

And what do we find here?

Ulcer.

This slowness, delay in the passage of food, can be considered as the big factor in causing the two ailments most frequently found in intestine.

And the lesson?

That if five or six hours were to elapse between meals, that would prevent a large number of cases of appendicitis or ulcer.

Further, as movement is so important, any bending exercise would be another most valuable method of inducing movement along intestine and thus preventing ailments mentioned above.

African Exploration

Africa was explored by the ancients. The first known exploration of Africa began with the voyages of the Phoenicians in 600 B. C. The real opening of Africa to the knowledge of the modern world, however, was due to the voyages of Prince Henry the Navigator.

Great Work Uncompleted

"The Mystery of Edwin Drood" was to have been completed in 12 monthly parts, but only about six were written when Dickens died.

BABY MISSING

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

I'VE looked upstairs, I've looked down,
Here and there all over town,
In the garden, in the yard—
My, but I've been looking hard.
Baby missing! Help me find
One of just one certain kind,
Just the one I used to know
Not so very long ago.

Why, it seems just yesterday
Baby used to laugh and play,
Do the things that babies do,
Creep and crawl and smile and coo.
But today I climbed the stair;
Just imagine who was there?
Not a baby, not at all,
But a lady, big and tall.

There she was in baby's room,
Still the same pink roses bloom
On the paper, still the sun
Through the window peeps at one.
But the baby's gone away;
There's a lady there today,
Quite a lady, yet her name
And the baby's seem the same.

Once we had a baby, now
Something's happened here, somehow.
Now we have a lady, yes,
But the nicest one, I guess.
Well, our baby's gone away,
But our lady's come to stay.
Baby's vanished, babies do—
But we love our daughter, too.

RADIO CENSORSHIP

IT IS an event of no small significance when thirty radio stations can all be hooked up together and one voice heard in every state and hamlet in this country. The science of broadcasting is only in its infancy and who dare predict what it shall be capable of accomplishing in the next ten or twenty years? With so great an accomplishment goes a tremendously important responsibility. Music is being broadcast to the satisfaction of all tastes as are also other forms of entertainment. But, when it comes to the human voice broadcasting a speech dealing with the fundamental principles of government, politics and issues of national and international concern, who determines just what voice shall be heard and who is responsible for the ideas and interpretations given?

Do we not need a centralized source of authority in such matters? We have a board of censorship in the picture film enterprise, why not in the advertising business of broadcasting?

The radio has come to stay. Its influence in the molding of public opinion, like the newspaper, is very great. Will that influence be for progress or retrogression?

FOR THE GOOSE—

WASH and iron a rag and drape it around you tasty, and you got a costume. Let a costume get draggled around the bottom, and you got a rag.

You complain about other people's faults but your own is the only ones you can't get away from.

There's some proverb says it's better to be a rich man's slave than a poor man's wife. And one that claims it's better to be a poor man's wife than a rich man's slave. And both is right accordin' to whether you got the temperment of a wife or a slave.

FOR THE GANDER—

It's better never to pay a compliment to a woman than tell her she's got a hundred good points and then find one fault.

A woman that can't make you terribly miserable can't make you terribly happy neither.

A lotta times a man don't kiss a woman because he wants to as much as because he wants to know what she'll do if he does.

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, March 8.—Stephen Olds has been visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas entertained friends at dinner Saturday night at their home in Libertyville, near New Paltz.

Elmer Hornbeck has been acting as nurse at the County Farm Hospital.

John Smalley has been visiting Jesse Quick.

Howard DuBois recently entertained a number of callers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peterscon spent Saturday in Kingston.

Mrs. E. Cranz entertained guests over the week end.

Daniel Hasbrouck is recovering after a relapse of sickness.

Miss Jewell Carrol spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Roy Denniston of Hurley visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah P. LeFevre, on Monday.

James Petersen is having a part of the interior of his home redecorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds and son of Maybrook visited Mrs. Reynolds's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kniffin, on Sunday.

Those present from Orange county at the Ulster County Home Bureau meeting in New Paltz Grange Hall last Thursday, were Miss Dolly Booth of Campbell Hall, Miss Mabel King of Goshen, Mrs. Albert Manning of Middletown and Miss Helen Bull. These ladies are a committee formed with a view to organizing an Orange County Home Bureau of Economics. Mrs. W. B. Bull of Stony Ford also attended the New Paltz meeting. About 75 people in all attended the meeting of Ulster Farm and Home Bureau. Prof. Barron of the State College of Agriculture spoke of the need of more leagues and Mrs. Monroe spoke of the "Property Rights of Men and Women."

Charles Turner was leader at the Epworth League meeting Sunday night at the Methodist Church. Topic, "Beginning an Experiment."

The Standard Bearers will meet with the Misses Hilda and Myra Gerald Friday afternoon, at their home on South Chestnut street.

There was a meeting of the House Mothers at the Normal Monday evening, March 5.

Clarence Duryea broke his arm last Tuesday night, while cranking a truck. He was taken to the Kingston City Hospital for an X-ray.

Mrs. Howard Ostrander and son, Howard, Jr., were the guests of Mrs. Lawrence Osterhoudt over the past week end. Mrs. Osterhoudt was formerly Florence Smith and a graduate of the New Paltz Normal.

Dr. Lawrence Van den Berg attended the meeting of the principals of the New York State Normal Schools held in Albany last week.

The Junior Class was responsible for the program in chapel at the Normal Tuesday from 1:15 to 2 o'clock. They had as their representative and speaker, Miss Pfaff, who very delightfully told some of her experiences abroad in France in the summer of 1914, when the World War was declared. All enjoyed her talk and are anxious to hear more another time.

Ralph Buchanan was the leader of the Christian Endeavor Society meeting at the Reformed Church on Sunday evening. The topic, "What is it in Jesus That Attracts Young People?"

The first rehearsal of The Mikado was held Monday evening in the basement of the Methodist Church. Those who heard The Pirates of Penzance last year will be glad that Mr. Oates has consented to direct a second Gilbert and Sullivan light opera. The date has not been set but it is expected to be given two nights early in May.

SAMSONVILLE.

Samsonville, March 8—Florence Barringer spent the week end at her home.

R. Davis spent Sunday evening with N. Barringer and wife.

Mrs. Fred Haver called on Edna Davis on Sunday last.

Jesse Shurter has several men engaged in hauling logs to his mill. They are hauling it from the wood lot of Mrs. Virgil Barringer of Palentown. Mrs. Barringer is living with her daughter at Maybrook.

There will be an entertainment and social in the M. E. Hall March 16. Supper will be served after the entertainment. All those who are helping with the entertainment are requested to be at the hall not later than 7:15 p. m. so the entertainment can start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Several are suffering with colds in this community.

Otis Barringer and wife visited Mrs. Barringer's father, Elfinge Beesimer, who is ill with pneumonia at his home in Cherrytown.

F. N. Davis is working for John Barringer of Krumville.

The Nogar man is calling on his friends in Samsonville.

Old Kit Carson Scout Out of Office Again

Santa Fe, N. M.—Juan Jose Gutierrez, one time scout with Kit Carson, is again an ex-governor.

For three months he ruled the Indian pueblo of Santa Clara and carried a silver-headed cane, the symbol of office which was presented to one of his predecessors by President Lincoln. A recent election made another man governor, but Juan Jose may be a plain citizen only temporarily, for he has been elected governor so many times he has lost count.

He has seen many moons slip by, but he has lost count of his age, too. As the pueblo reckons time, he thinks he is about one hundred years old. The Santa Claruns have turned to younger men for leadership, but they have always called Juan Jose back to the cane.

While he is waiting for a turn in political fortunes, the deposed governor sells pictures of himself in the regalia of office to get money for tobacco.

LONE NAVIGATOR ON LAST HOP OF LONG SEA JOURNEY

French Tennis Player Using Small Sailboat in His Efforts to Circumnavigate the Globe.

Paris.—Alain Gerbault, the French tennis player who became a circumnavigator of the globe, using a tiny sailboat, is on the last lap of his journey, which has taken him up and down the seven seas for two years. He is now somewhere in the south Atlantic bearing due north from Cape Town, via the island of St. Helena, where Napoleon passed his last years in exile.

Even Gerbault's close friends, and they are very few, are unable to explain his liking for solitude and long sea voyages far from civilization. It is ascribed by some to a hopeless love affair, by others to financial reverses, and by others to deep-seated mysogony amounting to a positive hatred for modern life in civilized communities. It has even been reported recently that he intends to take up his permanent residence in an island of the South Seas.

Gerbault was, however, always a lover of the sea. In his youth he lived for years in Dinard and St. Malo on the Breton coast. The local fishermen were his pals and from them he learned all they knew about seafaring. The old corsairs were the heroes of his boyhood reading. He was an insatiable reader of books of travel and adventure even when he was a engineering student in Paris. Of exceptional physical strength and agility, he made a name as a tennis player. In the World war he distinguished himself as an aviator.

After the war he played tennis and other sports for some years, and in 1923 started out on his 142-day lone voyage across the Atlantic from Cannes to New York. In his book describing that voyage he told of several occasions when steamers passed close and asked him if he needed aid.

He talks of these offers with scorn as if they had doubt in his ability to navigate and overcome the perils of the sea. That has been his attitude ever since toward his fellow men. He prefers to travel alone. He has no social bond.

On his last journey, which he expects to finish soon, he went through the Panama canal and across the Pacific, touching at scores of islands in Polynesia, thence across the Indian ocean to the island of Reunion, where Abd-el Krim, the former Riff leader, is living in exile, and to Durban, in South Africa.

Has 47 Generations of Ancestors in Caskets

Ada-Bazaar, Turkey.—Rechid Safet Bey, deputy to the grand national assembly, claims that he has the largest collection of ancestors in the world.

In two mausoleums, one at Sivas and one at Ada-Bazaar, he can put his hands on the caskets of his forbears in an unbroken line of 47 generations.

The family of Safet Bey was started in Turkey when one of his forbears migrated into Anatolia from Turkestan 450 years before the Turks who were to found the Ottoman empire, swept in under the leadership of Orhan.

Each generation of the family has produced a writer worthy of mention in histories of Turkish literature. Safet Bey is a leading economist and a master of French.

Few Frenchmen Die Poor and Very Few Wealthy

Paris.—Few Frenchmen die poor, but very few of them die wealthy, according to recent statistics on fortunes in France.

One thousand dollars, or about 25,000 francs, is the average fortune devised by will. Division of the estate among the heirs, which is nearly obligatory under the Napoleonic code, still the basis of French law, has made France the country of many but small property owners.

All but 1¾ per cent of the people who die in France every year leave enough to pay their debts. Fewer than 1,000 fortunes of more than 1,000,000 francs are left.

Goitre Not a Disease.

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery.

Milwaukee, Wisc.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 6-C, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wisc., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The Doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Write him today.—Advertisement.

Well! whiter than ever

Yet I didn't scrub—didn't boil

IT'S marvelous what a change of laundry soap can do. I'm mighty glad my grocer got me to try Rinso.

Why, Rinso actually soaks out the dirt and stains! There's no hard work for me at all. Even the most soiled things come from the soaking nice and white.

I don't even bother about boiling any more—Rinso cleans and whitens so wonderfully without boiling. I never knew that soap alone could do so much, not until I tried Rinso! It saves the clothes—and my hands, too.

And what I like about this safe granulated soap is that a very little of it makes a tubful of thick, creamy suds. Real suds that make the water soft and soapy all through.

Why don't you ask your grocer for

Rinso

The granulated soap that soaks clothes whiter.

SEEKING TO DENY WOMEN EQUAL CHANCE TO EARN.

Among the bills now before the New York Legislature aiming to revise the Labor Law are those personally appearing in support of restriction of the hours, night work and other conditions of labor for women but not for men, says a review by the National Woman's Party.

Assemblyman Hamill, of Kings county, has made himself the sponsor of much of this type of legislature. Bills removing various exemptions for women workers from provisions of the new 8-hour law, operative since January 1st, have been urged by him. By the terms of A. Int. 398 only news writers and reporters are exempted.

Other measures urged by the same sponsor would, if enacted, create a minimum wage board for women in factories and mercantile houses. The introduction of minimum wage bills recalls to mind the adverse decision of the Supreme Court of United States in 1923 in regard to the constitutionality of minimum wage law for women only. The prevailing opinion of that case stated:

"We cannot accept the doctrine that women of mature age, sui juris, require or may be subjected to restriction upon their liberty of contract which could not lawfully be imposed in the case of men under similar circumstances. To do so would be to ignore all the implications to be drawn from the present day trend of legislation as well as that of common thought and usage, by which woman is accorded emancipation from the old doctrine that she must be given special protection or be subjected to special restraint in her contractual and civil relationship."

It was the Industrial Survey Commission appointed last year in this state to investigate effects of labor legislation generally throughout the state that, in reporting its findings, recommended the 8-hour day and 48-hour week law for women workers, with extra time allowable on one day of the week in order to provide for a half holiday on Saturday. This law also provides that overtime employment of women amounting in total to 78 hours during a year may be permitted. The latter clause was inserted in response to the demand of seasonal or style industries, but at the same time it offered to working women for the first time since "protective" legislative became fashionable the advantage of that jealously guarded perogative of the male worker, overtime pay.

It has been the policy of the legislative leaders throughout the present session to insist that the recommendations of the Industrial Survey Commission shall be accepted as final and proposals for further labor legislation be discouraged. However, the commission was besought to hold a new hearing by both employers and employes of various sections of the state. These represented textile, glove, collar and other trades which found the 8-hour day unsatisfactory in practical operation.

Consequently the life of the Commission was extended and the capitol hearing held. Among those appearing were representatives of the Industrial Council of the National Women's Party.

The opposition of this council to restrictive laws, it will be remembered, have been framed annually in measures demanding that any restrictions placed upon the conditions of labor for women shall also be extended to their male competitors.

Attacking this situation from another angle this group has had introduced in the Assembly by Assemblyman Jenks of Broome the following bill:

"Hereafter in this state restriction upon hours, night work or all other conditions of labor shall be the same for females as are provided by law for males.

"This act shall be deemed to repeal all labor laws applying to females but not to males."

It was in behalf of this forthright and unequivocal demand that the council address the Industrial Survey Commission.

Another proposition advanced at the hearing was that embodied in a measure drawn for the Industrial Council and introduced by Assemblyman Boyle. It aims to safeguard the rights of restaurant workers and guarantee an equal chance with their young men competitors to make a good living. The bill would exempt them from provisions of the 8-hour day, 48-hour week and no-night-work law. It has been their experience that young men working during four hours, from 8 to 12 at night, were able to earn a larger income by reason of extra tips and commissions on sale of candy than women could earn during 8 hours in the daytime.

In these two new legislative proposals it found clear and courageous recognition of the onus of all restrictive labor laws. Here is voiced rebellion at statute denial of women's equal chance to labor. They now stand forth in the arena of sex labor conflict, garbed in their true light—opposition to all restrictions upon the contract right of women which are not placed upon men.

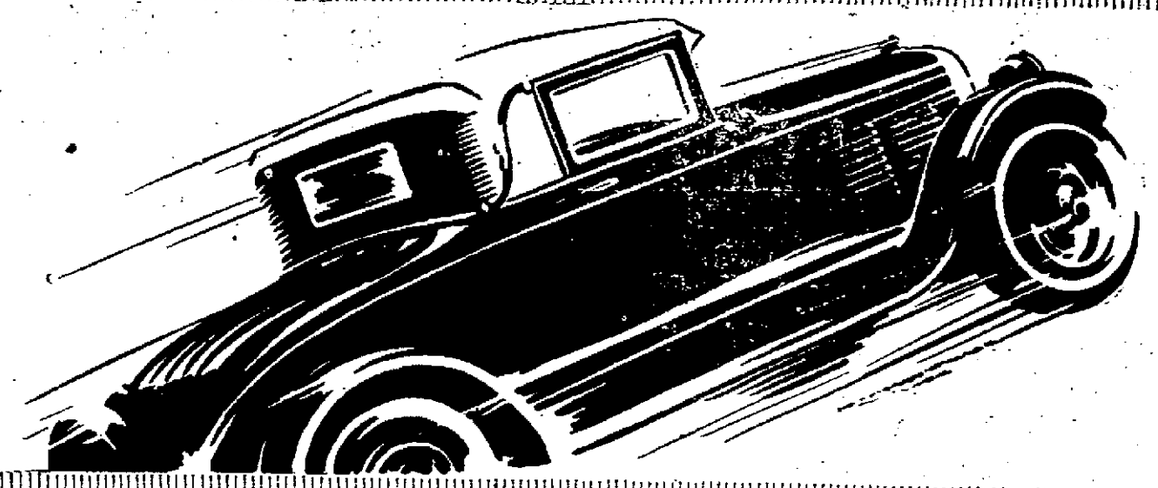
To A Million Boys and Girls Between 17 and 70



The Automobile That Talks The Language That Only They Can Understand

FOR a million boys and girls, between seventeen and seventy, Reo builds the Wolverine.

For them, especially, because Reo knows that they want to swing up to country club porches with the dash of cavalry captains.

For them, especially, because Reo knows how they must be growing tired of seeing and driving just nickel-plate—just fancy headlights—just two-tone color jobs.

So Reo builds the Wolverine to talk the language that all true boys and girls can understand—language dealing with the important business of getting somewhere.

The Reo Wolverine steals its way into your heart as a star halfback steals his way into the heart of the coach. It starts fast—goes fast—has a wonderful change of pace—and it gets somewhere.

Yes, Reo builds the Wolverine to be the automobile all boys and girls have wished for.

Builds it to be an automobile such as no one ever expected to drive into his or her own garage for so low an F. O. B. price as $1195 or $1295.

Try it out—over any roads—in any company. You'll be very much surprised.

STEAMBOATING CHANGES ON THE HUDSON RIVER.

About this time of the year, as winter wanes and spring approaches, and when the ice begins to loosen in the Upper Hudson and move down with the tides to be finally melted under the climbing sun, is renewed the annual activity of the steamboat men, in furbishing up their craft for the summer season. Nearly a century and a quarter has seen this spring cleaning and renewing of engines since Robert Fulton's Clermont demonstrated the practicality of the steamboat in 1807. For the Hudson river is associated, above all other inland waters of the world, with the development of reliable types of fast and commodious river steamboats. The earliest effective types originated there, and improvements in designs of hull and efficiency of propulsion led this branch of the ancient trade of navigation. The popularity of the Hudson, because of its beauty, the growing population on its shores centering in the port of New York, and its relation to railroad lines that took away much of the older water commerce but cannot destroy the peculiar charm of its placid waters and its splendid scenic surroundings; these features encouraged the development of swift, comfortable and capacious vessels whose names, repeating those of famous craft of the earlier days, are known far and wide.

Regular passenger traffic, between New York and Albany and intervening landings, was the earliest form of steamboat business, but there soon grew up the excursion trade, which in recent years, has become the most important development. In spite of the railroad and the automobile, the steamboat excursion traffic keeps up its volume in various directions from Manhattan piers, and of this the Hudson has the largest share.

The instant popularity of the river trade led to quick improvements over Fulton's first craft, and much competition in facilities offered, and in rates, after the Fulton-Livingston monopoly of steam navigation in New York state waters was overthrown by the United States Supreme Court, in a decision written by John Marshall, in 1822, in which Daniel Webster argued for the plaintiffs. Many of these improvements were due to Col. John Stevens of Hoboken, and those of his family, long famous in engineering, who devised many inventions for bettering steam navigation; one of the most notable that of the "hog frame", or truss to stiffen the hulls of the light, shallow vessels, and a few examples of this form of construction still survive in these waters.

Early defects in boiler construction and races for speed that soon developed, led to disastrous explosions, and the origin of the barge without power, towed by a steamboat, which was long a feature of Hudson river excursions, but has now quite disappeared, was due to fear of such accidents. "Safety barges" were advertised as without danger, noise and heat, and were fitted up in a luxurious manner. But they were slow and the unencumbered steamboats beat them, and presently marine engineers learned to make boilers that would not blow up, and the barges were converted into cargo boats, for which some are still used in the harbor of New York for cattle.

The competition for Hudson river business between Commodore Vanderbilt and Daniel Drew was a picturesque feature of steamboating before the Civil War. Some of the boats of that day, like the New World, were quite as large as any now in use. And some were quite as fast, reaching speeds up to 25 miles an hour. Most famous was the Mary Powell, named for a family associated with Hudson river sloops and steamboats for a century, built in 1860, which outlived many other craft of her period until she was broken up at Kingston in 1923.

The St. John, the largest river steamboat up to her time, built in 1863, was 420 feet long, and carried thousands in the early era of Saratoga. Steamboats of more recent time, have tended to somewhat smaller size, but of improved safety and excursion capacity.

The last decades of the Nineteenth Century were the heyday of the steamboat and barge excursions, particularly of political chowder parties, to picnic groves on the Hudson, on Long Island Sound and other nearby waters. But the extension of the metropolitan area claimed them one by one, and none of the old type is now left. Fortunately, however, opportunities for steamboat excursions and picnics were preserved to the city population by the establishment and growth northward of the Palisades Interstate Park, first in the Palisades opposite Manhattan, Bronx and Westchester; then to Bear Mountain, in the Highlands of the Hudson, and eventually to include the intermediate area, of Hook Mountain, on the west shore, between Nyack and Haverstraw, opposite Tarrytown, Ossining and Croton Point.

Bear Mountain has become, in the past fifteen years, the most popular objective for steamboat excursionists on the Hudson. Half a million people reached it by boat in 1927. First with privately owned boats, and later with the Clermont and Onteora, given to the Park Commission in 1920 by the Laura Speiman Rockefeller Memorial, and with other boats chartered for additional requirements, the Interstate Park has made the public service provided by the ride up the river into the Highlands, with several hours' stay at Bear Mountain, for the numerous recreational features there, one of the most popular forms of outdoor enjoyment for the ten million people of the metropolitan district of New York, and northern New Jersey.

This service will be amplified, early this summer, by the opening of the Hook Mountain section of the Palisades Interstate Park, for larger and more intensive popular enjoyment. By Decoration Day, the steamboats of the commission will be making trips from the Battery and Harlem to the new pier which is now being built just north of Rockland Lake Landing. A bath house, cafeteria, shelter and dance floor will be ready at this new resort, which is being equipped at a cost of over $100,000, from the State Park Bond Issue of 1924, which the people of New York ratified by a majority of almost a million, of which Greater New York gave nine-tenths.

Hook Mountain is destined to become as well known a Hudson river resort as Bear Mountain, and it will be the nearest in access up the river; being only about half as far away as the Highlands portion of the park. With a sailing distance of about 25 miles from the Battery, and less from Harlem, it will be possible to make two trips a day, or to make afternoon trips for those who desire to stay into the evening. The floors of the great trap rock quarries left when the state stopped the blasting of the ridge and took it over for perpetual conservation of scenery and recreational uses, will be improved as picnicking places and athletic fields. The opening of this new division of the Interstate Park, intermediate between the Palisades and Bear Mountain, will add immensely to its public service, and restore the conditions of twenty-five years ago, when such steamboat resorts could be reached within an hour from the city, giving a much longer day for enjoyment ashore, and a shorter trip home in the evening.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a listless look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil as a substitute for calomel, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and cleaning the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Licenses Revoked And Suspended

Charles A. Harnett, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, revoked or suspended 284 certificates of automobile registration and licenses to drive during the three weeks ended February 25. There were 74 revocations and 12 suspensions in New York city and vicinity and 94 revocations and 42 suspensions in other parts of the state.

In the counties of the Albany district there were 15 revocations and 10 suspensions. Two of the revocations were for failure to file omnibus bonds, the names of those involved not being published. Among those who had their licenses revoked in this district was Joseph Malinagi, R. D. 4, Kingston, for reckless driving and Walter Butt of Rosendale, charged with making a false statement in his application.

LENTEN CANTATA AT FIRST REFORMED CHURCH

The Lenten cantata, "The Darkest Hour" which is to be sung at the First Reformed Church next Sunday evening is a musical work of unusual merit, from the fact that the music does so faithfully portray the meaning of the text.

This work is divided in five sections, opening with the Choral Prologue "Now my soul, thy voice upraising." Then follows "Gethsemane" and the trials before Caiaphas and Pilate where the music reaches a most dramatic climax in the cry of the mob for the Crucifixion.

"On the Road to Calvary" with its impressive processional March and "Calvary" follow, while the cantata is brought to a close with the stirring Epilogue "Let this mind be in you."

Separate numbers worthy of special mention are the choruses "God so loved the world" and "O Savior of the world" both with soprano and tenor obligatos, and the entrancingly beautiful male chorus "And now beloved Lord."

For this service the regular choir of the church will be assisted by Herman LaTour, tenor and Harry Clearwater, bass.

This man will never grow old

Full of pep at 60. Never expects to get too old to enjoy life. Has found secret.

HE'S ALWAYS astonishing people by introducing a lanky grandson or a flapper great-niece. For he's one of those men who seem young. With a clear skin, a springy step. And a laugh like a boy's. Actually he's reaching the age when most men think about retiring from business.

"Why should I retire?" he asks. "Never felt better in my life. All I ever need to keep well is Nujol. And that's not medicine." He's right. Nujol is a natural substance, perfected by the Nujol Laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). It contains absolutely no medicine or drugs. But it keeps the body functioning normally. For Nujol not only prevents any excess of the body poisons (we all have them) from forming, but also aids in their removal.

There's no age limit on Nujol. Doctors put babies on it soon after they're born. School children take it. Mothers and fathers. And the very old folks, too.

Maybe you think you feel perfectly well. Perhaps you suspect you don't. Anyway, try taking Nujol and see if there isn't a difference. Take it for 3 months. It can't do any harm to try. And it might do a lot of good. Everyone else who's tried it says so.

Be sure you get the genuine.

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, March 8.—The Men's Community Club has postponed its meeting for March from the 17th to the 30th. All members are asked to bear this in mind and communicate with others. This will be a big meeting this month. We will have with us as our guests the Men's Club of the First Dutch Reformed Church of Kingston. Our entertainment committee promises us a first rate program, while the stewards will furnish the best that can be had.

Carl Beatty was home over the week end. He has returned to his work in Nyack.

The friends of Robert East are very happy to see him about again after his operation for appendicitis.

The Reformed Church cordially invites the community to the services that will be held through Passion Week. The program and speakers will be announced later.

Choir practice will be held at the Reformed parsonage on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The second annual young men's conference will be held at the Kingston Y. M. C. A. on March 16 and 17. This conference is open to young men between the ages of 16 and 25 years of age. Those desiring to attend will please have registrations in hand of Chester Hall at the Y. M. C. A., before March 14. The addresses will be delivered by Prof. William J. Reagan, of the Oakwood School, and Dr. Clarence Hill Frank, who is pastor of the Baptist Church of Poughkeepsie. There will also be discussions led by competent leaders. Each church is allowed four delegates. The theme of the conference will be "Not Myself or Others but Myself and Others." Any young man desiring to attend may get in touch with his pastor.

The Christian Endeavor of the Reformed Church will hold its monthly business meeting and social in the basement of the church on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Members are urged to come out to transact business and to enjoy a social evening.

Services will be held at the Reformed Church on Sunday at the usual time. The Rev. C. Van Tol has chosen for his theme at 10:30 a. m., "A Wise Man's Fall." Sunday school will meet at 11:45, under the direction of L. D. Sahler. The lesson will be "Jesus Feeds the Multitudes." Mark 6:31-44; 8:1-10. The Men's Bible Class will meet at the same hour under the leadership of the pastor. We are now drawing near to the last days of Christ's life in their studies. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7 o'clock with Millie Peatty as leader. The topic is "How Can I Help Others to Follow Jesus?"

Mr. and Mrs. J. Holmes Smith were guests at a birthday dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winkleman Saturday evening. Both Mr. and Mrs. Winkleman's birthdays were on the fourth of March.

Mrs. George Bloom entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Julia Hasbrouck, the president, presided. At the close of the meeting a delicious dinner was served. Covers were laid for 15 members. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. J. Hunt and Mrs. Etta Crispell.

The Home Guards of the M. E. Church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ray Culver Saturday afternoon. Arnold Jacobson, the president, was in charge. Mrs. Culver, who is in charge of this organization, is planning new work for the next meeting.

Mrs. Bloomer has returned home after spending a few days at Yonkers, N. Y.

Mrs. Alice Eylar of Scarsdale, N. Y., spent some time recently with Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Mrs. Gladys Ford is spending a week in Albany, N. Y.

The Builders' birthday banquet of the M. E. Church, which was held Friday evening, was a great success. Miss Dorothy Palen, the president, presided. Mrs. Gladys Ford acted as toastmistress in a most pleasing way. Responses were made by Miss Della Clark, Ruth Baston and Bessie Krom. The Rev. and Mrs. Smith sang a duet and also led the singing of the evening. The address given by Mrs. Eylar of Scarsdale, was a most helpful one and enjoyed by all.

There will be an entertainment given in the Grange Hall March 16, under the auspices of the M. E. Church. A fine program is being prepared by the committee. Refreshments will be served free.

The Sunday school of the M. E. Church will open Sunday morning at 9:45, Oscar Wood, superintendent, in charge. The worship period will be in charge of Mrs. Jay Smith. At 11 a. m., the pastor will speak to the children for 10 minutes, after which he will bring the message, "Discord, a Deadly Disease." Special music by the choir. Miss Helen Palen at the piano.

Union church service will be held in the Reformed Church Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. C. Van Tol will have charge at his time. The message will be brought by the Rev. J. H. Smith, who will take for his text, "Winsomeness Without Compromise." The choir has prepared special music.

Great American

Daniel Webster was born at Salisbury, N. H., on January 18, 1782. In addition to being the best known orator in American history, he and Henry Clay were the leaders of the Whig party throughout its national existence.

Square Notes Superseded

Square notes in music are simply an old form of notation. The round ones are more quickly and easily made.

In Traveling 25,000 Miles in Less Than 23,000 Minutes The Commander Demonstrates Studebaker Speed and Stamina

TO the ear, only the swish of the wind; to the eye, only a speeding flash . . . as three stock Studebaker Commanders hurtle through space at the Atlantic City Speedway to travel 25,000 miles in less than that number of minutes.

But within each powerful motor, a fusillade of explosions . . . 6630 per minute . . . over 156 million during the run. Pistons plunged up and down with lightning rapidity—more than 104 million strokes. Valves, red-hot, opening and closing 1,100 times each minute . . . more than 26 million times during the 25,000 miles. And all this in a raging inferno of flaming gases!

Never had a motor been called upon to stand such an ordeal. Never had man or machine traveled so far so fast.

And these were not cars specially built for prodigious feats of speed, but strictly stock, fully-equipped Studebaker Commanders alike in every detail to those driven by owners all over the country. The run was made under the supervision of American Automobile Association officials who certified each car to be a strictly stock model.

To you, the fact that The Commander holds all the highest official endurance and speed records for fully equipped stock cars, regardless of power or price, is highly significant. Not only can The Commander travel at high sustained speed, but it can stand the hardest driving and still retain its youth for thousands and thousands of miles. Only engineering genius, combined with the finest materials and workmanship, could produce a car of such endurance.

Drive The Commander today and experience the thrill of the lithe, untiring power that made it the World's Champion Car. Just telephone and say when and where.

Auburn Attracts Much Attention

A crowd that rivaled the one which greeted the first showing of the new Ford, visited the show room of Morton Lown at 642 Broadway, Wednesday evening to view the latest and perhaps the greatest of American built stock, speed cars—the new Auburn 115 H. P. speedster. The car is painted a canary yellow and is trimmed with black and nickle. It has all accessories known for pleasure cars today and many of these are distinctive new features made first by Auburn. It is with no exception the most attractive sport car ever shown in Kingston and by the remarks overheard by Mr. Lown Wednesday night, it would be the most popular car in America, if the people were only more blessed with money. Mr. Lown expects to sell the car very soon and he is ready to take orders from anyone for immediate delivery.

Besides the Auburn, Mr. Lown also handles the new Graham-Paige and has some of their new models now on display at his show rooms. He reports a sale of five new Paige-Graham cars to Fitzpatrick and Draper, local cigar manufacturers, for use by their salesmen. He has just delivered a new Auburn 8-88 sport sedan to Mr. Wicks of New Paltz, a brother of Senator Wicks of this city.

PRINCIPAL MEAGHER ADDRESSES P.-T. A. NO. 5

At the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 5, held Tuesday, March 6, in the school, Principal Meagher made the address. He told his audience that Mr. Saunders, an inspector from Albany, had inspected the school as to attendance. He congratulated the principal upon the average attained for attendance which was 98.8. There are about 500 pupils in attendance at No. 5 school. The P.-T. A. was also praised for its contribution toward educational work sponsored by the state.

After the little talk concerning the work being carried on in the school, Principal Meagher explained educational slides which were shown. These pictures were purchased by the P.-T. A. with money made at card parties.

The next benefit card party of No. 5 P.-T. A. will be held at Mechanics' Hall on the afternoon of St. Patrick's Day, March 17, at 2:15 o'clock. Special refreshments will be served in keeping with the occasion. Progressive pinochle and bridge will be played. It is expected that there will be a large attendance.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Reception has been better and it has been worse than it was Wednesday night. WGY and WJZ did considerable snorting and WEAF did its share of fading. There was no great strength until after 8 o'clock, when stronger reception was accompanied by static. Chicago stations were very weak. The most consistent performers were WLW, WSAI and WJR.

Beginning Friday evening for the next twenty-six weeks the Savings Bank Association of New York state and the other Savings banks of New England, New Jersey, and Maryland will broadcast a program of music over the Red network of the National Broadcasting Company between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock. The program will come locally through such stations as WEAF of New York, WGY of Schenectady and WGR of Buffalo and associate radio stations. This program which will be known as the "Mutual Savings Hour" will include orchestra music by one of the best broadcasting musical units. The local Savings banks are co-operating in this program.

CHARITY CONCERT OF PRINCE ALBRECHT BANNED

New York, March 8 (AP).—The proposed charity concert by Prince Joachim Albrecht, second cousin of the former German Kaiser, at the Metropolitan Opera House on March 12 today was under an official city ban.

Bird S. Coler, commissioner of public welfare, refused to sanction the concert, in which the prince was to have led the New York Symphony Orchestra. Coler's ground was that the whole affair has been given too much "unfavorable publicity."

After the withdrawal of the International Dental Health Foundation for Children as sponsors of the concert because of a controversy with Paul Sydow, the prince's American manager, Prince Joachim announced he would give the proceeds to the first charity to apply in writing.

The National Endowment Fund of the Physicians' Home, Inc., was the first to apply and was accepted. Later, however, on learning of Commissioner Coler's attitude, it withdrew.

Mr. Sydow announced he would endeavor to get some other charitable organization to back the concert.

The prince yesterday practiced on the cello in his suite at the Ambassador, seemingly unperturbed by the controversy raging around him.

Weather by No Means Matter of Latitude

Weather is not a matter of latitude except so far as the equatorial regions and the poles are concerned. Such a temperature as ten below zero at sea level is much more devilish than thirty below in Minnesota, because the air at the seaboard is practically always moving and wind at so low a figure is torture. Again, such a temperature as 103 in the shade at Boston is less tolerable than a like or even higher figure in the wide-open spaces where men are men, and mostly politicians, talking through ten-gallon hats. New York is in the latitude of Lisbon, Naples and Constantinople. It is far colder in the winter than any of these, and colder than any part of Great Britain, which is in the latitude of Labrador. That country is not "warmed" by the Gulf stream, which is indistinguishable in point of heat half way across the Atlantic. Three-fourths of the possible points of the compass account for reasonably mild sea winds so far as Great Britain is concerned. In winter in New York more than half of the possible winter winds have come over thousands of miles of snow.—Barron's Financial Weekly.

Pictures for Benefit of Future Historians

A collection of photographs, showing scenes from all the wars in which the United States has been engaged since 1839, has been placed on file in the War college, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It comprises between 275,000 and 300,000 prints and includes important records of the Civil, Indian, Spanish-American and World wars. One of the most interesting of the entire collection is of the battlefield of Wounded Knee, scene of Custer's last stand, taken immediately after the battle. The Brady collection of the Civil war period, numbering about 6,000 photographs, is also filed. The World war section includes all pictures made by a signal corps, the army, the only British collection of World war pictures in this country and an Austrian section. Negotiations were made with the German government for approximately 1,200 pictures.

"Jerked" Beef

"Jerked" in the phrase "jerked beef or meat" is not the regular past participial form of the verb "jerk." It is a corruption of the Peruvian Indian word "charqui." Jerked meat is meat that has been cut into thin sheets and strips and hung upon a framework of poles to dry in the wind and sun. This was a favorite method of curing buffalo meat among the Indians of the Great plains. When the meat was fully "jerked" it was folded up and put into rawhide bags and kept for use in the winter.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Sunday School League Games

In the Sunday School League games at the Y. M. C. A. court Wednesday night, the Presbyterians lost to the Redeemers, 22-20. The Port Ewen quintet defeated the Congregationals, 25-24 and the Trinity team dropped two games to the Comforters. The score of the first game was 22-11, and the second contest, 32-29.

The Redeemers although behind by two points at the half, soon overcame the lead in the final period, coming out on top by two points. Niles and Kennedy did the best scoring for the Presbyterian with 7 and 8 points respectively. Dittus, Fox and Messenger did the heaviest scoring for the Redeemers.

Port Ewen defeated the Congregationals, leaders of the league by three points. Port Ewen was in front at the half time, 17-12, but in the second half their opponents crept up slowly and for a time it looked as though the tide might be changed. Van Etten did the best scoring for Port Ewen with 12 points while Krum, Cassell and Carpino caged the points for the Congregationals.

Trinity Drops Two Games.

Trinity dropped two games to the Comforters. Both contests were fast and hard fought and greatly interested the fans.

Van Bramer of the Comforters was leading individual scorer of the first game with 11 points and in the second game Williams and Van Bramer were the leading scorers for the Comforters with 12 apiece. Mohr found the hoop the most times for the Trinity with 11 points.

FOUR UNDEFEATED IN BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP

Chicago, March 8 (AP).—Four of the ten aspirants for the National Pocket Billiard championship today stood at the top of the percentage column—undefeated. Frank Taberski of Schenectady, N. Y., titleholder; Ralph Greenleaf, Philadelphia and Pasquale Natalie, Baltimore, won their second games yesterday. Erwin Rudolph, Chicago, was idle after winning his first game Tuesday.

Taberski played poorly to defeat Joseph Goncannon, Washington, last night, Concannon forcing the match to 26 innings before the champion won, 125 to 103.

Greenleaf had little trouble with Andrew Ponzi, Philadelphia, Natalie was forced to extend himself to defeat Harry Wood, Duluth, 125 to 120.

Onofrio Lauri, New York, won the other game, defeating Peter Durocher of Chicago.

SCHEDULE FOR THE ARMY TENNIS VARSITY

West Point, N. Y., March 8 (AP).—Playing for the first time under a ruling that bars first year men from the squad, the army tennis varsity this season faces the lengthiest schedule in the military academy's court history. Three veterans of the team that lost only to Cornell last year, Cadets Sherborne, Lewis and Mathews, again will be eligible, however.

The schedule for 1928, announced today follows:

April 21, LaFayette; 25, Colgate; 28, Cornell at Ithaca.

May 2, Stevens Institute; 5, Columbia; 9, Massachusetts of Technology; 12, New York U.; 16, Wesleyan; 19, Fordham; 23, Villa Nova; 26, Amherst; 30, U. of Penn.

TWO GAMES AT HIGH SCHOOL GYM FRIDAY

The Kingston High School varsity will line-up against the Alumni, and the Kingston High School Seconds will play the De Molay quintet at the K. H. S. Gym Friday night.

The first game between the Seconds and the De Molay will be called at 7 o'clock and the second game at 8 o'clock.

The Alumni team won the DUSO League championship a few years ago. Kingston came out in second place this year in the DUSO League, so Coach Kias is working his men hard in order to have them in shape for the game.

ARMY GOLFERS WILL PLAY FIVE MATCHES

West Point, N. Y., March 8 (AP).—Army's golfers, presenting an unbroken front with a team that was undefeated last season, have planned an ambitious schedule for 1928. Headed by Captain Israel, the cadet mashie wielders will play five matches.

The schedule follows:

April 28, U. of Penn. at Philadelphia; May 5, Georgetown; 12, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; 19, Colgate; 26, Union.

Joe Myers to Meet Tommy Gans

Joe Myers of this city is scheduled to meet Tommy Gans of the 369th Infantry, New York city, on the card of bouts to be staged at the local armory on Friday night, March 23. Gans holds a decision over Myers registered here in a previous meeting and the Kingston boy hopes to even matters with his conqueror.

"Red" Mosher, 150, of the 156th Artillery won over Charlie Rauch of the same weight, member of the 244th Coast Artillery, at the 212th Anti-Aircraft Armory Wednesday night. In a preliminary scrap Walter Handel, who fought here some time ago, scored a victory over Billy Murphy.

Charley Von Reeden of the West Side, who fought Kid Rash here at the last armory bouts, will meet Kid Silverberg of Brooklyn in the eight round semi final tonight at the 192d Medical Armory.

Industrial Games At "Y" Tonight

The Apollos will battle the Artistics in the opening tilt of the Industrial basketball games at the Y. M. C. A. court tonight. In the second game of the fight the Central Hudson B team will meet the Columbia quintet. These games are postponed ones scheduled to have been played Christmas week.

There will be only a few more games in the Industrial League. The fans, who have been enjoying the tilts throughout the basketball season, are expected to be on hand tonight to see the teams in action. The first game will get under way at 8:30 o'clock.

UNFAIR SAYS TUNNEY AND MISS BISHOP

Miami Beach, Fla., Mar. 8 (AP).—Rumors that the heavyweight boxing champion of the world has made formal surrender to romance remained today simply rumors, neither confirmed nor denied.

Reporters had quizzed Gene Tunney and plied with questions his rumored fiancee, Miss Caroline Bishop of Beverly Hills, Cal., but the best they could earn was a draw.

Miss Bishop admitted she found the ring king "one of the most admirable men of our age." Mr. Tunney confessed he believed the California visitor here "one of the loveliest girls" he ever had known. Yet both considered pointed questions about their alleged betrothal "unfair" and said so, although neither went so far as to enter even mild denial.

Meanwhile the more incurable romanticists were attaching much significance to reports which enamated from Stamford, Conn., last night to the effect that Tunney had purchased a 75 acre farm, with all appurtenances for placid country life, in the Longridge section of that state.

The flurry over the champion's state of heart took definite form yesterday when Tunney drove to the station here to bid farewell to Miss Bishop, who was departing for her home in company with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Thompson, known in film circles as Frances Marion, scenario writer.

Tunney and Miss Bishop have been seen much together during her visit here. He accompanied her and her aunt on a yachting trip on the last day of their stay in Miami.

Miss Bishop is known in motion picture circles as a dancer and actress.

MERCANTILE LEAGUE BOWLING RESULTS.

In the Mercantile League bowling games at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night the Canfield Supply Company team defeated the Central Hudson Secondaries in three tilts. The Fuller shirt factory team downed the Kingston Trust Company trio in three games.

SMITH, WORLD'S CHAMPION BOWLER HERE TONIGHT

Jimmy Smith, world's champion bowler, will roll six games at the local Y. M. C. A. tonight for the first time in his career. He will oppose in one game each, Bill Thiel, "Stubby" Jordan, "Dutch" Bedford, George Coley, John Raible and Fred Rice. These men competed in elimination tourneys in order to get a chance at Smith. The first game will start at 7:30 o'clock and a large number of fans is expected to be on hand to see the locals compete against Smith.

Missionary work should also begin at home.

BATTLE FOR RAP AT GENE'S TITLE

The traditional rivalry between Uncle Sam's "Leatherneck" Marines and ship-rolling "Gobs" may come to a showdown soon. That is if Jack Sharkey, the "talking tar" (at right), disposes of Johnny Risko (at left), the Cleveland doughnut modeler, in their battle at Madison Square Garden next Tuesday night. Sharkey says it'll be meat for him, and as for Champion "Gene"—well ask sailors if they ever got licked by a "sea policeman."

HUGGINS FEARS URBAN SHOCKER MAY RETIRE.

St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 8 (AP).—Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yanks, is beginning to fear that Urban Shocker, the best right-handed pitcher in the radio supply business, is serious in his announced intent to retire from baseball.

Huggins has a letter today from the eminent spitball artist of St. Louis, Mo., in which Shocker announced he was through, refused to place himself within hearing distance of the mite manager's pleas, and declared that, anyway, the terms of the contract offered him were not satisfactory. If nothing further is heard from Urban within 24 hours, the "incident is closed," Huggins said.

Similarly Waite Hoyt, his star twirler, continues to absent himself from the camp unsigned. Outfielders Comb and Meusel have not put in an appearance but both have accepted terms. The rest of the squad is training lightly.

TY COBB TAKES FIRST WARM UP WITH GIANTS.

Augusta, Ga., Mar. 8 (AP).—The Giants have a new playmate. Tyrus Cobb, and the Georgia Peach likes the gang so well that he has asked Connie Mack to let him stay and not join the Philadelphia Athletics until they come here for a game on March 16.

Quite to the surprise of everyone, for only last week the veteran outfielder was refused the privileges of the Giant's field and clubhouse, Cobb strolled on the field at the close of yesterday afternoon's practice game and took his first warm up of the season. It wasn't much, just a few infield rollers and a jog around the bases.

The Travis Jacksons beat the Freddie Lindstroms 9 to 2 in a six inning scrub game featured by loads of heavy hitting.

PRINCETON HAS CHANCE TO CAPTURE COURT TITLE

New York, March 8 (AP).—With but one game to go in the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League schedule for 1928, the Princeton Tiger today had its only chance to win the flag from Pennsylvania.

One of the final battles of the year will bring Penn and the Tiger together Saturday night. The Philadelphia squad has won seven games and lost two. Princeton has won six and dropped three, and a victory for the jungle cat shooters in the closing contest will bring about a tie and the necessity of a playoff to determine the title.

PHIL EDWARDS, NEGRO STAR, HAS THE MEASLES

New York, March 8 (AP).—When Phil Edwards, sensational negro middle distance star of the New York University and one of the outstanding competitors of the indoor season, raced anchor on the Violet's winning two mile relay team in the intercollegiate championships, he had a slight fever and thought he had a cold. But he turned in 1 minute and 55 2-5 seconds for his half mile to win by 20 yards from Dartmouth and Georgetown.

Today Edwards has the measles and is out of competition for the winter. The illness may prevent his competing in further races before the Olympics.

Mothers, Do This—

When the children cough, rub Musterole on their throats and chests. No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief.

As first aid, Musterole is excellent. Keep a jar ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

HOW ONE THIN WOMAN GAINED 11 POUNDS

Read This Letter

This is from Mrs. W. E. Looney—I just must tell you that McCoy's Tablets are the finest things I have ever tried. I have always been thin and never found anything to do me so much good. I was disappointed in the beginning.

I weighed 104 when I began—now I weigh 115½. I praise them. I can't be without them. My limbs are picking up fine. I am singing their praises to everyone I see. I didn't have any faith in them to start.

Signed (Mrs. W. E. Looney)

McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

The name McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets has been shortened—just ask for McCoy's Tablets at any drug store in America.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Kingston Jews Set Example

By Making Prompt Payment of Pledges Made in the United Jewish Campaign—Provide Matzohs For Passover in Eastern Europe.

Syracuse, March 8.—To lack bread is nothing new to the impoverished Jews of Eastern Europe, but to face the prospect of being unable to provide Matzohs for the Holy Passover week is an ordeal worse than hunger. And yet tens of thousands of Jews in Poland and other Eastern European countries face precisely that possibility of having to forego the Passover Matzohs, a sort of unleavened bread which the Holy Scriptures prescribe the Jewish people shall eat during Passover week in commemoration of their deliverance from Egyptian bondage.

According to Bernard B. Given, state chairman of the United Jewish Campaign, the Jews, especially those of Poland, are unable to provide their families with that elemental necessity of Matzohs for the Passover, which is regarded by them as the most sacred of holidays, because of the acute economic crisis which this winter swept over Eastern European Jewry.

The tragic aspect of the whole situation of the stricken Jews, whose condition is intolerable as it is, Mr. Given said at state headquarters here today, is that to the hunger days will be added the sting of being unable to observe the sacred Passover as practiced by the Jews throughout the ages.

It is particularly sad, State Chairman Given declared, because the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the body which has for years carried on a gigantic struggle to relieve the suffering of Eastern European Jewry, is almost helpless in the face of the present crisis because of a lack of funds with which to carry on the work.

The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee which is headed by leaders of world Jewry, among them Felix Warburg, New York banker, who has already given a fortune for relief work; Louis Marshall, Julius Rosenwald, Paul Baerwald and David A. Brown and Mr. Given of the United Jewish Campaign, are pinning their hope on American Jewry to help drive the sadness from scores of thousands of Jewish homes of Eastern Europe during Passover week which begins April 4th.

The only source of alleviating the sad condition of the Jews during the coming holiday, the Jewish leaders assert, is prompt payment on pledges made in the United Jewish Campaign to which the Jews of Kingston have subscribed liberally. The help must come quickly if the relief is to be brought to the afflicted Jews before it is too late. As an example of prompt action in making available means of relief, State Chairman Given cited the action of the Jewish leaders of Kingston. Realizing the tragic condition of their brethren overseas, the officers of the United Jewish Campaign of Kingston made personal calls on pledgors. As a result of this move, the Jewish people of Kingston were able to forward a substantial sum to state headquarters, which the state chairman in turn sent on to national headquarters without delay.

"It is by such action alone that we can hope to bring a semblance of joy to the homes of our unfortunate brethren of Eastern Europe," State Chairman Given said in commenting on the action of the Kingston leaders. "The officers of the United Jewish Campaign of Kingston, among them Frank Forman, Henry Klein, Sam Weisberg and others, have set an example which other communities may well follow."

REYNOLDS' RECOLLECTIONS

In The Beginning

The sing of the hawser whistling through the air—strong hands make it fast to the wharf—another boat is into "Upper Landing."

This was where the Fall stream emptied into the river. Sailing ships from foreign shores found port here beside the many steamboats engaged in river traffic. The farmers of Dutchess County brought their produce for shipment here—sailors found it a convenient trading point.

In the center of life at the wharf was the House of Reynolds, serving and growing with this beginning of Poughkeepsie. Today finds the House of Reynolds serving the people for miles along the Hudson Valley. This extending of service and growth has been the natural outcome of following the ideals established in the business more than a century ago.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

By the Associated Press.

Lenox, Mass.—Married 47 years, Sherman A. Rook, 70, is awaiting a divorce. His wife is 69 years old. They have 14 children. For 27 years they lived in the same house here, then removed to Winter Haven, Fla.

Denver—At the age of 55 Mrs. Rose Vitello Perella has obtained a divorce. Her husband, 40 years her junior, averred she proposed two years ago. The court admonished her not to flirt.

New York—The society columns record that Miss Betty Baldwin of New York won a bet at Aiken, S. C., by riding a horse bareback after playing golf, and that Mrs. Graham Fair Vanderbilt is going to White Sulphur Springs because Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt is at Virginia Hot Springs, three miles away.

Vienna—It is impossible to overcome the constitutional phenomenon of age, in the opinion of Prof. Julius Tandler, anatomical authority. He told the Austrian Science Society that all rejuvenation operations are financial operations.

Los Angeles—As Logan F. Metcalf avers, four days after he eloped to Tia Juan with Madge Bellamy of the screen, she removed her wedding ring and ordered him out of the house. He is seeking a divorce.

Madrid—The home of Don Quixote's sweetheart, Dulcinea, in Toboso, is to be renovated by the authorities in order that it may be preserved for visitors.

New York—Belle Livingstone, toast of Broadway when on the stage in the nineties, is credited by the newspapers with the intention of establishing a rendezvous with 100 members at a fee of $200 a year. She has leased an 80-year-old three-story house that was once the center of fashion.

Washington — How come New York's Jimmy was late? "I'd be busy all my life if I answered that question," said the mayor.

New York—Some of the photographers are inclined to think that descendants of the fellows who sold Manhattan for $24 are trying to get even. A bunch of Sioux going to Berlin for a circus asked $5 apiece to pose. They finally compromised on free copies of the pictures.

SERVICES IN RURAL REFORMED CHURCHES.

Hurley and North Marbletown—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is to be celebrated next Sunday, in both of these churches. Dr. James Cantine is to have charge of the services.

Accord—The Rochester Church services for the day are: Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. "Jesus Feeds the Multitudes." (Mark 6:31-44 and 8:1-10). Preaching at 10:30 a. m. Topic, "The Inspiration of Jesus." There will be services at Mettacahonts chapel: Sunday school at 2:00 p. m. and preaching at 3:00 p. m. Topic, "The Forgiveness of Sin." There will be a talk for the children at both services. The Rev. J. B. Steketee is to conduct the services.

At last Sunday's service there were eight accessions to the membership, seven upon confession of faith, one by letter.

The newly chosen office bearers of the church are: Fred Simpson and Vernon Barnhart, as elders, for two years; Russell Miller and Jesse Quick, as deacons for two years and Percy Barley, deacon for one year.

KRIPPLEBUSH.

Kripplebush, March 8.—The young people of the Epworth League will serve a St. Patrick's supper, March 17, at the hall, consisting of baked ham, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, baked beans, pickles, cake coffee, Jello. Home made ice cream and other refreshments will be on sale. Benefit for the church.

Church services every Sunday at 2:30 by the Rev. G. H. Cooley. Sunday school at 1:30. Everyone welcome.

Harry Shea has employment in New York.

Mrs. Miller spent Saturday at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Christiana and family spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Davis's.

All are glad to hear Archie and George Van Aken are improving.

A number attended the party and dance at George Christiana's last Wednesday evening. All reported a fine time.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT, Southern District of New York.—In the Matter of Theodore R. Coy, of Clintondale, Ulster County, N. Y., in said district, bankrupt. No. 44256.

To the creditors of said bankrupt:

Notice is hereby given that on the 31st day of January, 1928, the above named Theodore R. Coy was duly adjudicated a bankrupt, and that the first meeting of creditors will be held at the office of the undersigned Referee in Bankruptcy, No. 277 Fair Street, City of Kingston, N. Y., on the 20th day of March, 1928, at 10:30 A. M., at which time the creditors may attend, prove their claims, elect a trustee, examine the bankrupt if desired, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., March 8, 1928.

Referee in Bankruptcy.

We Need Runs, Says Robinson

Uncle Wilbert Watches His Great Pitchers Toss Them Over—Brooklyn Manager Can Only Hope That He Will Get the Runs.

By the Associated Press.

Clearwater, Fla., March 8.—"Uncle Wilbert" Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, sat on two chairs placed between the plate and first base as he watched his great pitchers tossing the ball to batsmen.

Dazzy Vance, the speedball king, was throwing birdshot at youngsters, batting with one foot free. Jess Petty, with a touch of silver in his hair, was showing wee lefthanded hooks, and Bill Doak, his alert face lined by wrinkles of a dozen years on major league diamonds, now and then was contributing to the young fellows' education with a knuckle ball. Hard by, the big McWeeney, even bigger Elliott, Rube Ehrhardt and William Watson Clark were loosening their able arms.

Robinson's eyes strayed from the pitchers to his almost equally great catching staff, Deberry, Hargreaves and Henlene, and with a plaintive note in his voice, in a brief sentence, wrote a prescription for his ball club.

"What we need is runs," he said.

The Brooklyn boss can only hope that he will get the runs. He will not know for some time yet if his wish is to be fulfilled. He does not want many, just a few will do, he thinks, for his pitchers and catchers will form the basis for a tight defense. If baseball teams were made up only of batteries Brooklyn would always be in the first division.

Dave Bancroft, former manager of the Boston Braves, has added noticeable strength to the infield. He will play shortstop, probably between Partridge at second and Harry Riconda at third. Bissonette seems likely to draw the first base assignment. Partridge is the only holdover. Riconda came from the American Association, although he has been up before, and Bissonette was graduated from the International.

Harry Freigau, another former big timer, will be available as utility as will D'Arcy Flowers and Charlie Corigan of last year's team.

The Brooklyn outfield is scrambled. Captain Max Carey, the veteran, will start in center field. The field of candidates for the other two positions is large. Tyson, another of the men from the minors who have been in the majors before, will make a bid. Babe Herman, converted first baseman, is devoting all his time to outfield efforts, and Arnold Statz is back again from last year. Harvey Hendrick, Brooklyn's lone .300 hitter in 1927, is now regarded as an outfielder, subject to call at first base. Overton Tremper, fast youngster who played well at times last season, is back again.

Max West from Waco, and Dan Taylor from Memphis, complete an outfield array that is impressive in numbers. Manager Robinson who can go into a huddle with President Robinson, without leaving his two chairs, has no idea how he will arrange the outfielders. He will seek a combination to supply his need of runs.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, March 8.—Lucretia Rebekah Lodge will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Odd Fellows' Hall at Ulster Park.

The Dorcas Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. William Yessee on South Broadway, Friday evening, March 9. Mrs. Fred Sleight and Mrs. Yessee will be the hostesses for the evening.

A play entitled, "Mother Mine," will be given in the Methodist Church House on Thursday evening, March 15. This is said to be a beautiful play and it is thought everyone will be glad to see it. Further details will be announced later.

The supper held in the Methodist Church House on Tuesday evening was a great success. There was a large number of people from Kingston, who spoke very highly of the cuisine and the way the supper was served. During the first and second serving a fine program was rendered in the auditorium of the church for the entertainment of those waiting for the second table. Professor Schutz of Kingston gave several instrumental numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Kingston sang negro spirituals. Solo, Miss Cleo Every. An orchestra of three instruments rendered excellent music. Henry Deane, Jr., cornet; Donald Tinnie, violinist, and Miss Eunice Short, pianist. Vocal selections were beautifully rendered by John Corfield of Weedsport, N. Y., who was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beaver of Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Caniff, who have spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Baxter in Marlborough, have returned to their home on Schryver street.

Tourists are stopping over night in several of the residences on Broadway.

The Dorcas Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. William Yesse of South Broadway, Friday evening. Mrs. Yesse and Mrs. Fred Sleight will be the hostesses.

The annual congregational meeting of the Reformed Church will be held tonight in the Sunday school room for the election of two elders and two deacons in the place of those whose terms expire. After the meeting a social hour will be had.

The Dorcas Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Mabel Yesse on South Broadway Friday evening. Mrs. Yesse and Mrs. Lulu Sleight will be the hostesses.

Program for Young Men's Conference

Three Speakers Secured For Young Men's Conference of Ulster County To Be Held at Y. M. C. A. March 16 and 17—The Program.

The second annual Young Men's Conference of Ulster county will be held in the local Y. M. C. A. Friday afternoon and evening, and the following Saturday, March 16 and 17.

The Conference committee, with the Rev. L. K. Painter of Clintondale has built the conference about the theme, "Not myself or others but myself and others."

There are three principal speakers, Prof. William J. Reagan of the Oakwood School of Poughkeepsie, Dr. Clarence Hill Frank, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Poughkeepsie, and the Rev. Kimber H. K. Den, a chinese Episcopal clergyman, in charge of the St. Matthew's Church, Nanchang, Klangsi, China.

This will be the second conference that has been held for the young men of Ulster county, and already the committee has received registrations, and assurance of a large attendance which lead them to believe that the attendance will surpass that of the previous year.

The conference is open to any young man between the ages of 16 and 25 who will send in his registration card. These cards may be secured from any minister in the county, or from the secretary of the conference, Chester Hall of the local Y. M. C. A. These registrations accompanied by the registration fee should be in the hands of the secretary not later than Wednesday, March 14.

The Chi Rho Club of Kingston will arrange for entertainment for all out of town guests over Friday night, in the homes of the people of Kingston. Any person in Kingston who would be willing to entertain a visiting delegate Friday night and provide his breakfast on Saturday morning is requested to notify Burton Van Deusen, at the Y. M. C. A. This will be a great help to the committee.

The conference will be conducted on the address and discussion basis, that is, directly after the address by the speaker the boys will break up into smaller groups, and under efficient leadership will discuss the theme of the speaker, thereby arriving at a definite conclusion rather than accepting the word of the speaker.

The committee count themselves fortunate in securing as discussion leaders, the following men: F. O. Van Ness of Poughkeepsie, E. V. Robbins of Newburgh, and Warren M. Blodgett of Albany.

The Program.

The following is the program of the conference:

Friday Afternoon.

4:10—Registration of Delegates.
4:30—Devotional Service.
5:15—Address by Prof. W. J. Regan, "Personalty."

Friday Evening.

7:00—Devotional and Song Service.
7:30—Address by Prof. Regan, "Being a Person."

Saturday Morning.

9:00—Devotional and Song Service.
9:30—Discussion Groups.
10:15—Address by Prof. Regan, "The Obligation of Being a Person—One's Relation to Others."
11:00—Discussion by Groups.
12:00—Conference Photograph.

Saturday Afternoon.

2:00—Organized Recreation.
4:45—Address on World Brotherhood—Rev. Kimber H. K. Den.

Saturday Evening.

6:15—Banquet.
7:30—Address by Dr. Clarence Hill Frank, "The Obligation of Being a Person—One's Relation to God."

Committee.

Rev. L. K. Painter, Clintondale.
Rev. George Benton Smith, Kingston.
Rev. Cornelius Van Tol, Stone Ridge.
Rev. George L. Withey, Kingston.
Chester R. Hall, Kingston.

LEGION TO MEET TONIGHT WITH ORGANIZATIONS.

All the organizations invited to participate with the American Legion in planning a Memorial Day program are requested to meet at the Memorial Building, West O'Reilly street tonight at 8 o'clock. Over sixty organizations were invited to take part in planning the services and Memorial Day is expected to be very fittingly celebrated here this year.

Coke Employes Visit Plant.

About twenty employes of the Hudson Valley Coke Company, from the sales depots at Kingston and Poughkeepsie, including managers, assistant managers and salesmen went to South Troy on Sunday as guests of the corporation. They were shown the large plant and were entertained at a dinner.

Preparatory Services.

Preparatory services will be held this evening in the chapel of the Rondout Presbyterian Church. Following the services there will be a reception for new members. Communion services will be held in the church Sunday morning.

Church Service at Krumville.

Krumville, March 8.—"The Fine Art of Listening" is the subject of the sermon by the Rev. Thomas S. Braithwaite in the Reformed Church, Krumville, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All are welcome.

Ground Always Frozen

Ice to the depth of more than 300 yards binds the soil of northern Siberia even in summer. The frozen ground covers an area of 5,000,000 square kilometers, a territory half as large as Europe, according to a report made to the Berlin Geographical society.

Mission at St. Peter's Church

A Mission for married and single women will begin in St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church Sunday at the 10:30 o'clock Mass. It will be conducted by the Rev. John Sippel, C. Ss. R. and the Rev. Henry Knecht, C. Ss. R. of Philadelphia. The latter will open the Mission. A Mission for men will be conducted by Redemptorist Fathers the week following the one for women. It will be opened Sunday evening, March 18, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Mission services will be as follows: Masses every morning at 5:30 and 8:15 o'clock; evening services at 7:45, except Sunday when devotions will start at 7:30 o'clock. There will be an instruction after the morning Masses and a sermon and Benediction will compose the evening devotions.

The Rev. John P. Neumann, pastor of St. Peter's Church, invites all parishioners and friends to make the Mission. He urges that all members of the church make a special effort to attend the services to hear the sermons, aimed to benefit every Catholic. The Mission is being conducted so that Catholics may take a spiritual inventory to help them determine their soul's standing with God. A Mission has not been conducted in St. Peter's Church in some time and it is expected that the present Lenten season will stimulate a great interest toward the success of the Mission. It is urged that those making the Mission go to confession early in the week so that Holy Communion may be received at least twice during the holy period.

REV. O. E. BRANDORF TALKS TO BUSINESS GIRLS

There was a large attendance at the regular Wednesday night supper of the Business Girls' Club at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday night. There was peppy singing led by "Mickey" McLaughlin and the girls welcomed Miss Charlotte McClary, the new member of the Board of Directors, who will head the Business Girls department of the Y. W. C. A. work. Also Mrs. Brandorf was present with the Rev. Mr. Brandorf, pastor of the Lutheran Church of The Redeemer who gave the girls a fine Lenten talk in which he expressed his belief in the young people, especially the young women of today and urged those present to make their lives sacrificial rather than superficial, if they would find greatest satisfaction in life, and prove to be of the greatest service in the world.

Next Wednesday the supper will be a "St. Patrick's Day" supper, and the program will be in charge of the teacher members of The Business Girls' Club. To this supper every member of the club is urged to try and bring one other girl in business, who has not been in the habit of attending the suppers of the Y. W. C. A. or is not a member of the Club.

Masquerade Ball.

Mystic Court, No. 62, Order of the Amaranth, will hold a masquerade ball at the Masonic Club rooms, 535 Broadway, Friday evening, March 30. Paul Zucca's orchestra will play.

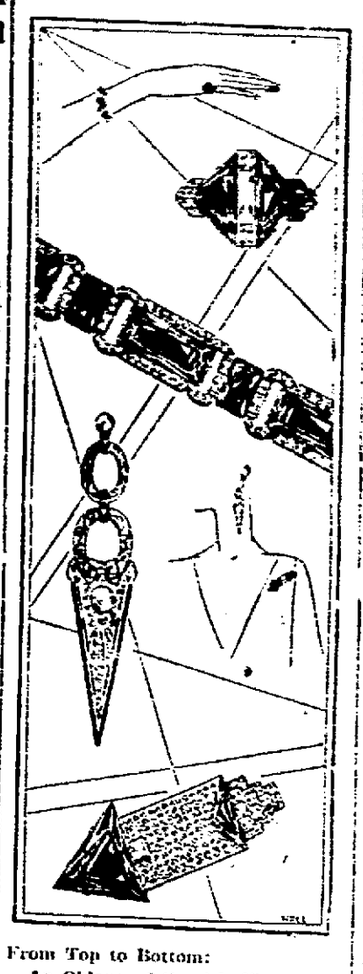
ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

Jewelry Is Under the Spell of Modern Influence—Designs Are Bold, Colorful, and Massive—The Ornament is the Successor to the Shoulder Flower

Paris—In nothing that women wear is the modern influence more apparent than in jewelry. This applies not only to costume, but to feminine jewelry as well.

The great hue and cry over sports clothes has brought about a desire for ornaments that are harmonious with the activity, and one may also say the simplicity, of outdoor life. That geometrical designs have been popular and that mechanical devices have served as inspiration for the new type of jewelry is evident. There is something forceful about such designs, and in nearly every instance they are relied upon to add an important decorative note to the costume. Indeed, many dresses seem to be chosen as a background for the display of such jewels. The shoulder flower, for instance, has been replaced by the jewel or ornament, which has become almost a necessity.



From Top to Bottom:

An Oblong of Coral is Flanked at Either Side with Triangular Pieces of Black Onyx in a Ring That Introduces Fine Marcasite at Either Side of the Onyx.

A Bracelet Composed of Oblongs of Black Onyx Framed in Marcasite and Connected with Squares of Onyx by Macasite Links and Small Squares of Coral.

Pendant Earring Made Entirely of Marcasite, of Which the Arrow Drop is Outlined with Black Enamel.

A Triangle of Black Onyx in Different Sizes is Found at Either Side of a Marcasite Brooch with Squares of Coral in Pyramid Treatment at One End and a Single Square of It at the Opposite Side.

In the matter of rings, the modern influence is again apparent. Fashion insists on large and often rather massive rings, a style that is inclined to enhance the beauty of the hand. One large ring is the usual rule. Gold has replaced platinum for rings, as well as for other pieces of jewelry.

While crystal is enjoying a tremendous vogue, one is not wrong in stressing the importance of colored stones. The color selected is always in relation to the costume with which the ornament is to be worn. Rather extraordinary combinatoins of colors occur in modern designs, introduced either in gems or enamel. (Copyright, 1928, by Metropolitan Newspaper Service, New York.)

flavor

no other margarine maker has been able to approach

For more than forty years the John F. Jelke Company has been producing high-grade margarine.

All these years it has made GOOD LUCK of rich, nutritious meat products instead of the cheaper vegetable oils used in so many margarines today.

This long experience and the use of choice ingredients combine to give GOOD LUCK a flavor which is the delight of housewives everywhere. It's a flavor which simply can't be told from that of the most expensive spreads-for-bread.

Yet GOOD LUCK costs only about half as much as expensive spreads and but a trifle more than ordinary margarines. Try it . . . on your table and in cooking . . . and see how much better it is.

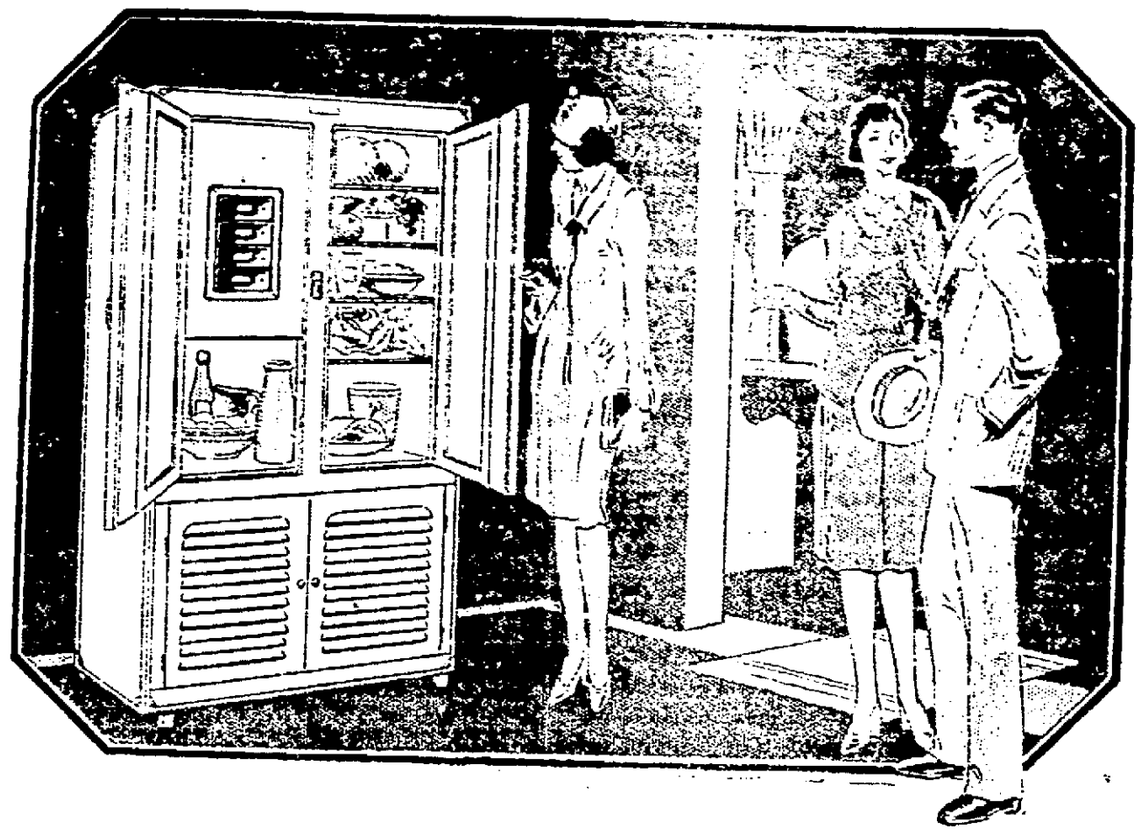
The Choice of the Majority



Dainty desserts frozen whenever you wish; ice cubes for sparkling beverages; butter firm and vegetables crisp—and never any qualms about your ice supply. Foods are so well kept, at just the desired temperature, that all their natural flavor and health giving qualities are retained.

These are some of the many advantages which the owner of Frigidaire points out to her admiring friends. Also she knows these facts have made this electric refrigerator the overwhelming choice of the majority. Frigidaire may be installed in the home for as low as $195 cash.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Pretty Afternoon Frock.

6047. Moire with satin, or crepe satin, also velveteen with satin are excellent for the development of this style.

The pattern is cut in six sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. To make the dress as shown in the large view, for a 38-inch size will require 3¾ yards of 39-inch material together with one yard of contrasting material for facing the collar and cascade portions of skirt and bolero. The width of the dress at the lower edge is 51 inches.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fashion Book Notice.

Send 15c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Spring and Summer 1928 Book of Fashions showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of ladies', misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 20 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Tweed Costume Likely to Be Spring Favorite

The tweed costume is likely to be the piece-de-resistance of the spring wardrobe. Louise Brooks, featured motion picture player, has selected a smart tweed, in a gray, black and white mixture. The skirt of the one-piece frock does clever things with plaits and unusual belt lines. The coat is three-quarter length, full back and raglan sleeves. A scarf of material similar to the skirt hangs separately in true scarf fashion. Chic lizard-skin oxfords and felt hat of slate gray are worn with this outfit.

Mrs. M. L. Bayer Adopts Child

Detroit, March 8 (AP).—The four-year-old bonus son of Mrs. Myron L. Boyer, daughter-in-law of Joseph Boyer, executive of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, today became her legally adopted son.

The child, who had been named for Joseph Boyer, and who had been made a heir to a $5,000,000 trust fund, was legally adopted by Mrs. Boyer before Judge Dan A. McGaffey in Oakland county probate court at Pontiac, Mich., and was given the name of Dode Alfred Boyer.

The adoption was allowed after Mrs. Boyer and her attorney, Ralph B. Lacey, presented a petition carrying an affidavit signed by the child's mother, a 23 year old Windsor, Ont., woman, releasing her parental rights. The child did not appear in court.

The affidavit stated that on November 9, 1923, four days after the child was born in a hotel in Windsor, the mother signed an agreement releasing the child to Mrs. Boyer. She reaffirmed the agreement, stating she released her rights to the child to Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, collectively or individually.

The adoption was another step toward clarifying the status of the child, thrown into a legal tangle when Mrs. Boyer's husband recently filed suit disclaiming the boy as his son and asking that his name be expunged from state records.

This suit, which would legally deprive the child of his $5,000,000 inheritance, is pending.

The child's name was changed at the request of Mrs. Boyer in her petition who gave no explanation for having him named Dode Alfred Boyer. He was referred to in the petition as Joseph Alfred Boyer, Jr.

PINE HILL.

Pine Hill, March 8 —C. H. Griffin, proprietor of Griffin's Garage, at this place, has been spending the past few days in New York city.

Joseph McGrath and George Schwarzwaelder, of Phoenicia, were Pine Hill visitors Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Persons and Mrs. Earl Persons motored to Kingston last Saturday.

The young people of this place have been enjoying the fine skating on the Pine Hill lake during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Harrington, of New York have been spending a few days in town, visiting their aunt, Mrs. Alice Hall.

Mrs. George Smith and daughter, Marie, who have been spending the past three months with Mrs. Smith's parents, at Hartford, Conn., returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clifford and Miss Elsie Smith and Miss Goldia Peet, motored to Albany one day last week.

At the village caucus held at the Village Hall last Saturday evening, Charles H. Griffin was nominated for Trustee and Charles H. Griffin for treasurer. The election will be held on Tuesday, March 20.

The Ladies' Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. George E. Rose, at her home on Mill street Thursday afternoon.

Listen! That's Your Goldfish Raising Din

East Lansing, Mich.—If any care to know, they may find out how much noise a goldfish makes when it swims about in its glass bowl. The answer to the puzzle, which may or may not have worried folks for years, was given at the electrical show at Michigan State college during Farmers' week here.

Visitors were able to detect the slightest noise made by a goldfish as it swam around in its medium, which is noted for its lack of privacy. Detection was made possible by the principle of radio control.

Another new feature of the show this year was a radio-controlled car. The principle also will be worked out in relation to door bells. A receiving set recorded the rings from a sending set in another room through a special relay system.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Mar. 8 (AP).—Speculative operations for the advance were resumed in today's stock market, but they appeared to have lost much of their momentum, due to heavy profit taking sales. General Motors created a new high record for the fifth consecutive day, but trading in that issue showed a marked drop in volume. Buying operations were most effective in the oils, public utilities and specialties, a number of which were marked up 3 to nearly six points.

Overnight news developments were generally bullish. Federal Reserve Governor Young's testimony on brokers' loans before the United States Senate committee received widespread favorable comment in Wall Street where considerable concern is apparent over the possibility of restrictive legislation. The decision of California oil producers to curtail production, coupled with an increase in export gasolin prices, brought fresh buying into the oil shares.

Public utilities were heavily bought on reports of large current earnings. American and Foreign Power second preferred jumped 5 points and American Power and Light, Federal Light and Traction, Hudson and Manhattan, Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit and Interborough Rapid Transit sold 2 to 4 points higher. Rubbers, which have been weak, rallied slightly.

Rails were quiet and sluggish in reflection of the disappointing weekly carloadings report. Youngstown Sheet and Tube broke 3¼ points to a new 1928 low at 85¼ and Inland rallied 3 points on announcement that merger negotiations between the two companies had been abandoned.

Ripen Corn Quickly

In the Pyrenean uplands on the Franco-Spanish frontier corn is grown to some extent, but the season is too short to let it ripen in the usual way. We see the farmers cutting off the upper part of the stalks to let in the sun, throw the strength into the ears and hasten the ripening. The part cut off is used for fodder.—Pathfinder Magazine.

WE HAVE $175,000.00 to lend on First Mortgage on improved property in Ulster, Orange, Rockland, Dutchess and Putnam Counties. Borrowers welcome. Moderate charge.

"For Goodness Sake Buy Good Securities."

Is Your Money Loafing?

Your money is your servant. It is an obedient servant, if rightly handled, but few of us make it an efficient one.

Many of us put forth strenuous effort in our daily lives to accumulate as much as possible of this servant money. And then allow the accumulation to loaf on the job.

How can we increase the efficiency or earning power of our servant money?

Why not put it to work in a situation where it has an opportunity to work at its best capacity?

You would not expect a bricklayer to lay many bricks with handcuffed hands, nor a farm hand to plow a field with his legs tied up in a sack.

If your servant money is not doing its best, perhaps it is your fault—you may not have given it a fair chance.

Get some advice on the matter!

Select an investment security house that is dependable, one whose fidelity and integrity is proven by its successful growth over a period of years—a house that keeps its clientele year after year and is continually adding new clients through the endorsement of its patrons. When you have done this, you will feel free to accept advice as to the best way to put your money to work.

During the past year, investors have purchased through our offices over seven million dollars worth of securities, which is an increase of almost two million dollars over the previous year. This surely is significant of the fact that our patrons have not only been well pleased with the way we have handled their investment problems, but that year after year, more people, many of whom have never invested in securities before, are now consulting us.

Investments wisely chosen should appreciate in value by participating in the growth and development of the industries in which the money is invested, together with the ever increasing wealth and resources of the nation as a whole; and after all the nation's resources are only as good as those industries that go to make up the nation.

Many of our clients have had the satisfaction of receiving a comfortable portion of the 25% average appreciation which has taken place in the value of bonds sold by us in the last eight years.

In certain types of securities, such as investment trusts, for example: American Founders Trust, International Securities Corporation of America and Second International Securities Corporation, the appreciation in market value during the past three years has been as much as 218%.

Results such as we quote here can only be obtained by employing the soundest principles in investing. The very best type of security must be selected—for only those investments that are intrinsically sound appreciate in value.

Unfortunately, many people, with only a few hundred dollars to invest, have the impression that they cannot invest their money to as good an advantage as can men who have greater means.

This is a somewhat false impression!

For the last fifty or sixty years in England and Scotland, and for the last five years in this country, the well managed investment trust—designed primarily for the investor of very small means offers the possessor of a small sum of money the same intrinsic security and diversification, together with profit-making possibilities as is afforded the millionaire.

For distribution, we have literature that explains in detail the principles of investment trusts and a circular describing one in particular, the Standard International Securities Corporation, that we especially recommend at this time.

We also have a substantial list of bonds that yield from 5% to 6.50%.

We invite you to call at any one of our four offices, and those in attendance will be glad to supply you with this literature and consult with you generally regarding your investment problems; or if you prefer, circulars will be mailed to you upon request.

BISHOP O'REILLY INSTALLED HEAD OF SCRANTON DIOCESE

Scranton, Pa., March 8 (P).—Bishop Thomas C. O'Reilly, former rector of the Church of St. John The Evangelist, Cleveland, today was installed as head of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Scranton, succeeding the late Bishop M. J. Hoban.

Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, and other dignitaries of the church, including bishops, monsignori and several hundred priests attended the installation ceremony in St. Peter's Cathedral.

Included in the procession from the Episcopal residence and St. Thomas's College to the Cathedral was a large delegation of Cleveland citizens, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus and relatives of the new bishop.

Monsignor Peter C. Christ, pastor of St. Mary's Church, South Scranton, was celebrant of the solemn high Mass at the installation.

The installation sermon was preached by the Rev. George J. Lucas, S. T. D., rector of St. Patrick's Church, this city.

Tonight the new bishop will attend a banquet in his honor given by the laymen of the diocese, after which he will attend a public reception.

ACCORD.

Accord, March 8.—An illustrated lecture "The Other Wise Man" will be given by the Rev. George H. Cooley in the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday evening, March 11, at 7:30 o'clock. There will not be any admission charge. The usual offering will be taken. Every one is welcome.

The entertainment given by local talent and the Junior Melody Makers Orchestra of Kingston in the I. O. O. F. Hall, February 29, was well attended. "Grandma's Dream" was very interesting and the orchestra rendered several fine selections. The committee wishes to thank all who helped make the enjoyable evening a success.

The preparatory class of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Rancer Smith, Friday evening at 6:45 and the choir will meet for rehearsal at 7:30 o'clock.

Services at M. E. Church Sunday, March 11: Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Sermon by the Rev. George H. Cooley at 11 o'clock. Lecture in the evening at 7:30.

The Country Woman's Club of the M. E. Church is invited to meet for the monthly social at the home of Mrs. M. P. Palmer Thursday, March 15, at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Stern of Kingston attended the entertainment at the I. O. O. F. Hall, February 29 and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Roney Krom.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson B. Krom and son, Robert, of Ellenville, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. George Oates Lout.

Mrs. Anna Gillespie of Kingston spent the week end with Mrs. Edith Drake and called on several friends.

Mrs. J. H. Silkworth has been confined to her home for several days with a severe cold.

The Far and Near Society will meet on Friday night, March 9, at the home of Gladys Schoonmaker to rehearse for the Easter pageant.

KERHONKSON.

Kerhonkson, March 8.—The evening services at the Methodist Church next Sunday will be conducted by the Hi-Y group from the Kingston Y. M. C. A. They bring an orchestra to lead the music as well as men to lead the devotions. They also bring the message. This should be a most interesting and inspiring service.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sherman of White Plains are spending a few weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Christiana.

The Willing Workers of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. D. Churchwell on Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was well attended.

The Reformed Church will serve a supper on Wednesday night, March 14. All are welcome.

The Missionary Society of the Reformed Church met at the home on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. Bullis.

Ulster Pomona Grange Meeting

Officers Installed and State Grange Reports Received at Meeting Held at Plattekill—Silver Jubilee to be Celebrated at Next Meeting.

Officers were installed at the meeting of Ulster County Pomona Grange held at Plattekill on Friday, March 2, by Mrs. Mills of Westchester county. Everyone enjoyed this impressive ceremony immensely, as Mrs. Mills's clear, concise manner of speaking left nothing to be desired. She was assisted by Mrs. Harry Sutton and Mrs. Clayton Jenkins, marshals; Mrs. Ralph Harcourt, emblem bearer; Miss Irene Sickler, regalia bearer; and Mrs. Alice Van Sickler, pianist. Mrs. Mills also gave a short talk on the opportunity the Grange has of providing supervised entertainment for the young people. She was accorded a rising vote of thanks for her most acceptable service.

Mrs. Ralph Harcourt, a member of the County Home Economics Committee, presented the silver cup won with carnations to Mrs. Lozier, chairman of the Plattekill Home Economics Committee. While many Granges have done excellent work, Plattekill has been the most active, winning the cup from Clintondale, who held it the past year.

Mr. Ross, delegate-at-large, called on his associates for reports of the various days at State Grange, recently held in Poughkeepsie: Tuesday, Mrs. LeFever of Rosendale; Wednesday and Thursday mornings, Mrs. Relyea of Asbury; Friday, Nathan Ackhart of Clintondale; evenings, Harold DuBois. Brother Ross said the delegates had played the game fair, which was quite evident, considering the excellent reports. Members taking the sixth degree at Poughkeepsie were from the following Granges: Highland, 6; Clintondale, 8; Ulster 7; New Paltz, 12; Lake Katrine, 15; Asbury, 18; Mt. Tremper, 7; and Rosendale, 14; making a total of 81 candidates from Ulster county.

Prof. Wright of Cornell spoke on Junior Extension Work and explained the 4-H Clubs, the four square development of our young people, their emblem meaning head, heart, hand and health. He gave several illustrations making clear the aims of these clubs, and suggested that the Granges could do nothing better than take up this work.

A short program was presented by Brother Barnes, as follows: Tableaux on Faith, Liberty and Justice; vocal solo, "Out of the Shadows", Myron Foster; reading, "Paddy Goes A-Courting", Rev. J. W. Taylor.

The 25th anniversary of Pomona Grange will be fittingly celebrated at the June meeting at Stone Ridge. Plans are being made, which promise to make this a real occasion.

ACTIVITIES AT REFORMED CHURCH OF THE COMFORTER

At the prayer and fellowship meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30 the pastor will speak on "Helping the Needy." It is hoped that the members of the church will rally to these mid-week services during the Lenten season in large numbers. The pastor will endeavor to make them interesting and inspirational. Choir rehearsal immediately following this service.

On Saturday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock the Y. P. S. C. E. will hold a food sale at the store of Rose & Gorman. The public is invited to patronize them, and try their fine home cooking.

Next Sunday afternoon will occur the annual every member canvass to obtain pledges for weekly contributions to the Church Hall debt. Between forty and fifty men and women will visit the different families between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock. Any who prefer can fill out their cards and put them on the collection plates Sunday morning. It is hoped that all the canvassers will if possible be present at the Sunday morning service.
